STRIKERS TURN DOWN SETTLEMENT OFFER OF GENERAL MOTORS

Failure of Company to Recognize Union Results In Rejection of Proposals—Mayor of Oshawa Tells Workers They Are Being Hoodwinked —Organizer Given Confidence Vote

OSHAWA, Ont., April 19 (CP).—More than 3,000 strikers tonight unanimously rejected proposals presented to them by Mayor Alex Hall from General Motors of Canada. The company offered higher wages on a five-day, forty-four-hour week basis.

The unanimous formal vote was taken after a private two-hour discussion which had shown the strikers "practically unanimous" to rejecting the proposal according to Hugh Thompson, organizer for the Committee for Industrial Organization.

Thompson indicated in his announcement of the strikers' decision that failure of the company to recognize the United Automobile Workers of America was the factor which resulted in rejection of the proposals.

"You're being duped," Mayor Hall cried to the strikers after their decision was made known. "You're being fooled. You're being hoodwinked."

The union had asked for a forty-hour week with time and a-half for overtime, recognition of the union and organization of a grievance committee.

After the mayor spoke he left hurriedly. The meeting immediately passed a formal, unanimous vote of confidence in Thompson, gave him three cheers and confirmed their rejection of the company's proposals.

When announcing the result of the two-hour secret session of the union members, Thompson said he hoped "the door had not been closed" to further negotiations with the company.

READY TO JOIN IN CONFERENCE

Germany Would Attend if President Roosevelt Called The Meeting

BERLIN, April 19 (AP).—Reichsfuehrer Hitler assured the world today Germany will attend willingly any international economic conference convoked by President Roosevelt or some other leader of a great nation.

The Fuehrer made his announcement a prelude to elaborate ceremonies in observance of his forty-eighth birthday anniversary tomorrow. The ceremonies began tonight with dedication of ninety new flags and standards for the Third Army Corps which lined the huge square before the Reich chancellory.

MEETS LANSBURY

Hitler conferred with George Lansbury, British Labor Member of Parliament, and an official transcript of his remarks stated:

"Germany would be very willing to attend a conference and partake of a united effort to establish economic co-operation and mutual understanding between the nations of the world if President Roosevelt or the head of some other great country would take the lead in calling such a conference."

Officials interpreted today's statement as a reiteration of Germany's plea for lowering of trade barriers so that she may sell her goods if she is to buy those of other nations.

OLD STOPPING PLACE DESTROYED BY FIRE

ASHCROFT, B.C., April 19 (CP).—The old 100 Mile House, famous seventy-five years ago as a stopping place for travelers along the old Cariboo Highway in Interior British Columbia, was destroyed by fire early today, according to word reaching here.

The structure had lately been used as a bunkhouse on Lord Martin Cecil's Cariboo cattle ranch.

LAUNCH NEW DESTROYER

MAIZURU, Japan, April 19 (AP).—High Japanese naval officers presided today at the launching of another 1,500-ton destroyer. The new ship, the Oshio, has a speed of thirty-four knots and carries an armament of six 12.7 centimetre guns and eight torpedo tubes.

MAY FLY TO B.C. COAST

Amy Mollison Plans Canadian Flight if Ocean Air Race Called Off

NEW YORK, April 19 (CP).—Amy Johnson Mollison, renowned British aviatrix, said tonight any flight by her from the United Kingdom to Canada was, so far at any rate, purely in the idea stage.

She said she was asked in Montreal last week what she would do with her new plane should the Lindbergh commemorative flight from New York to Paris not materialize.

"The idea flashed across my mind," she said, that a Canadian flight might replace it as a goodwill gesture in line with the projected opening up of an air line across Canada.

IS ENTERED IN RACE

However, if the French-sponsored Lindbergh race is not canceled or postponed indefinitely, Mrs. Mollison said, she would certainly take part in it. Her commercial plane, being fitted with large tanks, already is entered in the race.

Mrs. Mollison said a number of trans-Atlantic flights had "inadvertently" ended in Canada, but so far as she knew no aviator had yet planned and executed a Britain to Canada hop.

In New York on personal business, Mrs. Mollison will sail for home April 28.

KILLED IN MINE AT BELLINGHAM

Blast Fatal to Fire Boss Shortly Before 140 Miners Were to Start Work

BELLINGHAM, April 19 (CP).—Rescue crews tonight reached the body of Fire Boss Fred Lancaster, trapped 900 feet below the surface of the Bellingham coal mine by an explosion early this morning, just before the time for 140 miners to enter the workings.

The body was found on the eighth level, Percy Lucas, president of the company announced. It was badly burned. Acting Coroner R. B. Boettner said Lancaster had been killed instantly. Cause of the explosion was still unknown tonight.

Lucas said he believed a gas explosion occurred. Miners first feared 450 pounds of dynamite being sent down to Lancaster had been touched off, but the explosive was found undisturbed.

The explosion was the first in the history of the mine, Lucas said.

Lloyd Cormie and Norman Grass, only other men in the mine at the time of the blast, said they felt "a puff of wind." Later Foreman George Cormie descended to the sixth level, where he said he detected a gas odor. Debris at the sixth level was being removed by rescuers, who sought to establish an emergency ventilating system.

Following his duty as fire boss, Lancaster had preceded the day shift to the eighth level of the mine for a daily inspection. He signalled for the "trip" car to bring him to the surface, but the car stopped suddenly as the blast occurred.

Two Dead and Four Hurt in Train Wreck

EDMONTON, April 19 (CP).—Two alleged rod-riders were killed and four others injured when a Canadian National Railways eastbound freight train was derailed Saturday about twenty-eight mils west of North Battleford, Sask., it was stated here today by W. C. Owens, general superintendent in Edmonton district.

The dead: Kooc Bonicki, of Vegreville, Alta., and Mike Ewanec, of Ranfurly, Alta.

Mr. Owens said cause of the accident had not been determined.

Something "Devilish" in This Fish Story

This devil fish was caught near Capetown, the first ever to be caught in the Cape waters, and it weighed 200 pounds. This fish is of the type that carries pilot fish along with it, and this specimen has three attached, which adhere to the larger fish by means of suction. The three pilot fish are members of the mackerel family. The authorities in Capetown are greatly interested in this catch, and will preserve it.

John Bull Getting Braced To Resist Coming Shock Of Increased Tax Levies

Farmer Flags Train to Stop and Averts Possible Wreck

ITUNA, Sask., April 19 (CP).—John Nachulak, farmer, who once was a section hand, stood in the path of a Canadian National Railways trans-continental passenger train today and flagged it to a stop as it bore down on a broken rail.

Nachulak was crossing the track on his way home when he noticed the broken rail at a switch point. He started toward the station to inform the agent when the fast Winnipeg-bound train appeared. Standing in the centre of the track Nachulak used his knowledge of railway signals, gained when employed as a section worker, to flag the train to a stop. Coupling of a coach was damaged as the emergency brakes were applied, but none was injured.

Plans Big Increase In Gold Production At Wingdam Mines

Hitherto Unconquerable "Slum" of Cariboo Placer Fields Yielding to Australian System At Consolidated Gold Alluvials Property

VANCOUVER, April 19.—Production of $1,000,000 worth of gold during the twelve months ending March 31, 1938, has been recommended as the programme for Consolidated Gold Alluvials at Wingdam in the Cariboo by Major D. Campbell Mackenzie, general manager.

This planned objective will be adopted for both the Melvin and Sanderson mines. Operations of this company, financed by British capital, is particularly interesting in view of the large scale of its operations—the mining ground now comprises more than ten square miles—and the importance of its experiment with the Australian deep lead system in combatting the hitherto unconquerable "slum" of Cariboo placer fields.

That the company is making substantial progress in this battle against "slum," the slimp substance

CONFIDENT OF EARLY CAPTURE

Dr. Mattson Expects Arrest Of Son's Kidnapper—Admits Further Threats

TACOMA, April 19 (AP).—Confident in the face of repeated threats to his family, Dr. W. W. Mattson predicted the early capture of his son's kidnapper.

The Tacoma physician paused in his heavy professional programme to admit in an interview that both Muriel and William, his two remaining children, have been threatened since the body of Charles, ten, his younger son, was found on January 11.

Dr. Mattson talked freely, asserting he is now able to view the kidnapping and slaying of Charles from a more detached attitude than ever before. He expressed continued confidence in the ability of forty Federal Bureau of Investigation agents still working on the kidnapping case.

HOAXED REPORTERS

The physician admitted having hoaxed newspaper reporters to go to a rendezvous with the kidnappers who seized Charles on December 27 and demanded $28,000 for his release.

The physician said he had received hundreds of letters from all parts of the world since the kidnapping. He said one from a missionary in Madagascar concluded:

"In all forty years experience among savage natives, I have never known as revolting a crime as the kidnapping of your son."

AMERICAN PLANE SEIZED AT TRAIL

Machine Said to Have Carried Passengers in Canada With Unlicensed Pilot

OTTAWA, April 19 (CP).—Transport Department officials were advised tonight of the seizure of an American plane at Trail, B.C., but were awaiting a detailed report from officers on the scene. Pending receipt of the report, expected tomorrow, they could say nothing about the seizure.

A report from Trail said the machine, owned by Roy Schreck of Spokane, had been detained because Schreck flew passengers in Canada without a Canadian pilot's licence.

Neville Chamberlain Will Make His Last Budget Speech Today

EXTRA PRECAUTIONS TAKEN FOR SECRECY

LONDON, April 19 (AP).—The Cabinet, surrounded by precautions against possibility of leakage, learned tonight what was in store for the country tomorrow. Taxpayers were steadying themselves for bad news in Chancellor Neville Chamberlain's budget announcement for Parliament, in which it was expected he would ask for $4,250,000,000 revenue.

The special meeting of the Cabinet was held in the House of Commons. Secrecy was so carefully maintained that not even the Cabinet ministers themselves knew what the figures would be until the Chancellor told them.

LAST BUDGET SPEECH

Chamberlain's budget speech will be one of his last important appearances before Parliament as holder of the country's purse. The Chancellor of the Exchequer will move up into the Prime Minister's seat, succeeding Stanley Baldwin, who

SHIPS OF WAR CAUSE CONCERN

Unidentified Airplanes and Naval Craft Off Norway Alarm Oslo

OSLO, Norway, April 19 (AP).—Foreign airplanes, warships and submarines, reported hovering mysteriously about the Scandinavian countries, brought a war scare to Oslo tonight.

Officials professed alarm over the frequently recurring reports, and General Carl Erichsen, chief of Norway's defence in the north, urged the Government to speed up defence measures.

The mysterious planes and ships of war have been reported along the entire coast of Norway. Military authorities have been unable to establish the identity of any of the craft.

CONTROL OF BALTIC

Military experts assert Germany, in the event of war with Russia, would seek first to bottle up the Russian fleet in the Baltic by getting control of the narrow waterways around Denmark.

Russia would be interested, in turn, in keeping her Arctic communications free and in blocking Germany's supply of iron ore from the mines of Northern Swedeh.

Military authorities said yesterday at Bergen, Norway, that a fleet of four warships, one aircraft carrier, a submarine and an airplane of undetermined nationality manoeuvred close to the coast on April 5.

INTERNATIONAL PATROL SPANS FRONTIERS OF WARRING SPAIN

Naval Vessels Take Up Beats Around Shores While Corps of Observers Supervise Land Frontiers—Control Scheme of Twenty-Seven Countries Now Put Into Effect

Blockade May Stop Iron Ore Shipments to British Plants

LONDON, April 20 (AP).—Observers of many nations spanned the land and sea frontiers of warring Spain early today, carrying into effect from midnight the control scheme adopted by twenty-seven European countries. From Gibraltar sailed the British destroyers Vanoc, Acasta, Arrow and Antelope to take up their patrol beats along the southern coast of Spain, between the Portuguese frontier and Almeria.

The British flotilla leader Faulknor and four other destroyers were steaming from St. Jean de Luz, France, ready for similar duty along the Bay of Biscay coastline.

OBSERVERS ON DUTY

Ninety observers, including British naval officers, Dutch officers and even a Turkish captain, went on duty at Gibraltar.

Eighty British observers, supported by a corps of interpreters, began supervising the whole Portuguese-Spanish frontier.

A number of specially-chosen observers, British and of other nationalities, were installed in a large house overlooking the harbor at Dover, ready to accompany ships coming under the control scheme to Spanish ports.

GROWING PROBLEM

The problem of getting freighters into the North Spanish ports of Santander, Gijon and Bilbao to load vital iron ore cargoes assumed increasing importance. Continued operation of foundries and steel mills in South Wales, key to the Empire's rearmament, depends on Spanish iron ore imports.

The huge Welsh steel and iron trade is operating at an eight-year production peak, but it is feared the output, speeded up by rearmament, may be severely hampered by insurgent General Francisco Franco's attempted blockade.

It is a double-edged sword, furthermore, since Welsh exports of coal to Spain have been cut from 1,000,000 tons in 1935 to an annual

Many Voters Are Put on Lists for Coming Elections

MANY names were added to the list of voters for the electoral district of Victoria City, Esquimalt and Saanich as a result of yesterday's sitting of the Court of Revision, the last chance afforded to qualify to vote at the coming elections. For the city alone, over 250 names were registered and a corresponding number were added to the other lists. The staff of George H. Mabon was kept exceedingly busy all day looking after the details at the courthouse.

SHELL CITY AFTER DARK

Insurgents Throw High Explosives Into Besieged Capital at Night

MADRID, April 20 (AP).—Insurgents shelled Madrid last night in the first night bombardment since New Year's Eve, after pumping explosives into the city for eight consecutive days.

The half-hour artillery attack claimed a number of victims.

Ambulances and fire trucks moved through the darkened streets early today to remove the injured and extinguish blazes started by the shells.

The attack followed a day bombardment in which five persons were known to have been killed and twenty injured.

HEAVY CASUALTIES

During the last eight days 100 persons have been killed and more than 200 wounded.

The downtown district has been most severely punished. Theatres, hotels, restaurants and shops have been struck repeatedly.

The shells have found their mark on one downtown building forty-five times.

Still the capital's main thoroughfares are crowded with shoppers and strollers. The shells, instead of driving people to shelter, attract crowds.

PRESS OFFENSIVE

Meanwhile the Government continued to press its offensive against insurgents on the Teruel front, 150 miles to the east. Two towns west of Teruel—Monterde and Bronchales—were reported captured in the campaign to pinch off insurgent General Franco's salient, by which he had hoped to drive a wedge to the Mediterranean between Valencia and Barcelona.

In the rich mine country of Cordoba, south of Madrid, insurgents tried unsuccessfully to drive Government troops from their positions commanding the highway northwest of Cordoba city.

Eight Killed in Blast of Powder

MUSKEGO, Wis., April 19 (AP).—The death early today of a seventeen-year-old girl brought to eight the number of persons of one family who were killed when blasting powder stored in the basement of their farm home near here blew up.

The mother, Mrs. Mary Waszak, fifty-four, and seven children were seated around the family radio last night when the explosion demolished their home.

Kidnapper Soon Frees Boy Victim

OAKLAND, Cal., April 19 (CP).—Police reported the apparent kidnapping today of five-year-old William Grinnell Blodgett II, and his release with a note pinned to his play suit by his conscience-stricken abductor.

The penciled note, unsigned, said: "I would rather starve than make his parents suffer."

The boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart William Blodgett, who came here recently from St. Paul, Minnesota.

CONSERVATIVES NOMINATE SOON

Party Slate Will Be Selected At Convention Arranged For May 3

Announcement was made last night by R. D. Harvey, president of the Victoria Conservative Association, that the party nominating convention will be held in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium on Monday, May 3, at 8 p.m.

Ward associations will meet for the selection of delegates to the convention as follows: Ward One, this evening. Ward Two, tomorrow, Wednesday, April 21; Ward Four, Thursday, April 22. Ward Three, Friday, April 23; Ward Five, Tuesday, April 27, and Wards Six and Seven, Wednesday, April 28. All Conservatives resident in these wards may attend their respective ward meetings for the selection of delegates.

Dr. F. P. Patterson, Conservative leader, will attend the nomination convention on May 3, it was announced.

The committee charged with interviewing different persons to ascertain whether or not they would permit their names to go before the nominating convention, reported last night that the response had been most satisfactory, a number of prominent citizens expressing complete willingness to accept nomination for the four Victoria seats.

POPE CANCELS AUDIENCES

VATICAN CITY, April 19 (AP).—Pope Pius canceled all audiences today and remained in his private apartment upon the advice of his physician. Vatican prelates said the Holy Father's condition remained reasonably satisfactory, but that he must take increasing care of his health.

WOULD CONTROL LABOR UNIONS

Premier Hepburn Considers Licensing of Ontario Organizations

TORONTO, April 19 (CP).—Licensing of all international trade unions, as a means of controlling the activities of unions affiliated with the C.I.O., is under consideration by the Ontario Government, Premier Mitchell Hepburn announced today.

Convinced John L. Lewis, C.I.O. head, "is only interested in the fees he can collect from Canadian pay envelopes," the Premier declared if the sending of dues "across the line" could be stopped, present industrial troubles in Ontario would end. Every possible means of preventing the spread of the C.I.O. organization campaign in Ontario is being studied, he said.

While Mr. Hepburn professed no antipathy toward American Federation of Labor Unions, local International Trade Unionists opposed the licensing proposal.

"The thing is ridiculous," commented John Noble, president of the Toronto District Labor Council, largest in Canada. "I don't think he'd ever put it across, the International Trade Unionists of Ontario wouldn't let him."

Council Lops Large Sum Off Estimates At Lengthy Session

Estimates Committee Headed by Mayor Succeeds in Reducing Budget $22,527.80 in Drive Towards Mill Rate Reduction

STRIVING to reduce the tax rate two mills, Mayor Andrew McGavin and the City Council, sitting as an estimates committee, lopped $22,572.80 off the annual budget yesterday. Gross reductions totaled $25,154, with increased estimates of $7,906.20, but boosted revenue of $5,325 brought the net reduction to $22,572.80.

Another meeting will be held at 7.30 o'clock Thursday evening.

Increases were made in a grant for celebration of the city's seventy-fifth anniversary of incorporation, $3,500 to $10,000; Children's Aid Society, $5,400 to $6,400 and police salaries, $406.20.

Revenue increases were: Sewer rentals $2,000; Boulevard maintenance tax, $1,000; market fees, $300; poll tax, $500; building inspection fees, $100; plumbing inspection fees, $25; wiring inspection fees, $100; Royal Athletic Park, $200; Macdonald Park, $150; share of motor tax, $250; Goldstream water system, $500; Aged and Infirm Men's Home, $100, and Aged and Infirm Women's Home, $100; a total of $5,325 in increased revenues.

FRANCO ASSUMES SOLE LEADERSHIP

Insurgent Spanish Leader Outlaws All Political Parties but His Own

SALAMANCA, Spain, April 19 (AP).—Generalissimo Francisco Franco by a single decree today converted insurgent Spain into an authoritarian state under his sole leadership, outlawing all political parties except one which will owe allegiance to him alone.

The insurgent leader by the decree signed today assumed complete control of all semi-military as well as political organizations in the territory his armies have taken in the ten-month-old civil war.

It was announced, however, that the action did not "shut the door" to a restoration of the monarchy in Spain should the insurgents emerge victorious in the conflict.

TACOMA, April 19 (AP).—Confident in the face of repealed threats to his family, Dr. W. W. Mattson predicted the early capture of his son's kidnapper.

The Tacoma physician paused in his heavy professional programme to admit in an interview that both Muriel and William, his two remaining children, have been threatened since the body of Charles, ten, his younger son, was found on January 11.

Dr. Mattson talked freely, asserting he is now able to view the kidnapping and slaying of Charles from a more detached attitude than ever before. He expressed continued confidence in the ability of forty Federal Bureau of Investigation agents still working on the kidnapping case.

HOAXED REPORTERS

The physician admitted having hoaxed newspaper reporters to go to a rendezvous with the kidnappers who seized Charles on December 27 and demanded $28,000 for his release.

The physician said he had received hundreds of letters from all parts of the world since the kidnapping. He said one from a missionary in Madagascar concluded:

"In all forty years experience among savage natives I have never known as revolting a crime as the kidnapping of your son."

AMERICAN PLANE SEIZED AT TRAIL

Machine Said to Have Carried Passengers in Canada With Unlicensed Pilot

OTTAWA, April 19 (CP).—Transport Department officials were advised tonight of the seizure of an American plane at Trail, B.C., but were awaiting a detailed report from officers on the scene. Pending receipt of the report, expected tomorrow, they could say nothing about the seizure.

A report from Trail said the machine, owned by Roy Schreck, of Spokane, had been detained because Schreck flew passengers in Canada without a Canadian pilot's licence.

DUKE OF GLOUCESTER CHANGES RESIDENCE

LONDON, April 19 (AP).—The Duke of Gloucester took up residence today at York House, St. James Palace, which was occupied by the Duke of Windsor when he was Prince of Wales.

SHIPS OF WAR CAUSE CONCERN

Unidentified Airplanes and Naval Craft Off Norway Alarm Oslo

OSLO, Norway, April 19 (AP).—Foreign airplanes, warships and submarines, reported hovering mysteriously about the Scandinavian countries, brought a war scare to Oslo tonight.

Officials professed alarm over the frequently recurring reports, and General Carl Erichsen, chief of Norway's defence in the north, urged the Government to speed up defence measures.

The mysterious planes and ships of war have been reported along the entire coast of Norway. Military authorities have been unable to establish the identity of any of the craft.

CONTROL OF BALTIC

Military experts assert Germany, in the event of war with Russia, would seek first to bottle up the Russian fleet in the Baltic by getting control of the narrow waterways around Denmark.

Russia would be interested, in turn, in keeping her Arctic communications free and in blocking Germany's supply of iron ore from the mines of Northern Sweden.

Military authorities said yesterday at Bergen, Norway, that a fleet of four warships, one aircraft carrier, a submarine and an airplane of undetermined nationality manoeuvred close to the coast on April 5.

BARON CONWAY PASSES

LONDON, April 19 (AP).—Baron Conway of Allington, eighty-one famous mountain climber, explorer and authority on art, died here today.

INTERNATIONAL PATROL SPANS FRONTIERS OF WARRING SPAIN

Blockade May Stop Iron Ore Shipments to British Plants

LONDON, April 20 (AP).—Observers of many nations spanned the land and sea frontiers of warring Spain early today, carrying into effect from midnight the control scheme adopted by twenty-seven European countries. From Gibraltar sailed the British destroyers Vanoc, Acasta, Arrow and Antelope to take up their patrol beats along the southern coast of Spain, between the Portuguese frontier and Almeria.

The British flotilla leader Faulknor and four other destroyers were steaming from St. Jean de Luz, France, ready for similar duty along the Bay of Biscay coastline.

OBSERVERS ON DUTY

Ninety observers, including British naval officers, Dutch officers and even a Turkish captain, went on duty at Gibraltar.

Eighty British observers, supported by a corps of interpreters, began supervising the whole Portuguese-Spanish frontier.

A number of specially-chosen observers, British and of other nationalities, were installed in a large house overlooking the harbor at Dover, ready to accompany ships coming under the control scheme to Spanish ports.

GROWING PROBLEM

The problem of getting freighters into the North Spanish ports of Santander, Gijon and Bilbao to load vital iron ore cargoes assumes increasing importance. Continuous operation of foundries and steel mills in South Wales, key to the Empire's rearmament, depends on Spanish iron ore imports.

The huge Welsh steel and iron trade is operating at an eight-year production peak, but it is feared the output, speeded up by rearmament, may be severely hampered by insurgent General Francisco Franco's attempted blockade.

It is a double-edged sword, furthermore, since Welsh exports of coal to Spain have been cut from 1,000,000 tons in 1935 to an annual

Many Voters Are Put on Lists for Coming Elections

MANY names were added to the list of voters for the electoral district of Victoria City, Esquimalt and Saanich as a result of yesterday's sitting of the Court of Revision, the last chance afforded to qualify to vote at the coming elections. For the city alone, over 250 names were registered and a corresponding number were added to the other lists. The staff of George H. Mabon was kept exceedingly busy all day looking after the details at the courthouse.

SHELL CITY AFTER DARK

Insurgents Throw High Explosives Into Besieged Capital at Night

MADRID, April 20 (AP).—Insurgents shelled Madrid last night in the first night bombardment since New Year's Eve, after pumping explosives into the city for eight consecutive days.

The half-hour artillery attack claimed a number of victims.

Ambulances and fire trucks moved through the darkened streets early today to remove the injured and extinguish blazes started by the shells.

The attack followed a day bombardment in which five persons were known to have been killed and twenty injured.

HEAVY CASUALTIES

During the last eight days 100 persons have been killed and more than 200 wounded.

The downtown district has been most severely punished. Theatres, hotels, restaurants and shops have been struck repeatedly.

The shells have found their mark on one downtown building forty-five times.

Still the capital's main thoroughfares are crowded with shoppers and strollers. The shells, instead of driving people to shelter, attract crowds.

PRESS OFFENSIVE

Meanwhile the Government continued to press its offensive against insurgents on the Teruel front, 150 miles to the east. Two towns west of Teruel—Monterde and Bronchales—were reported captured in the campaign to pinch off insurgent General Franco's salient, by which he had hoped to drive a wedge to the Mediterranean between Valencia and Barcelona.

In the rich mine country of Cordoba, south of Madrid, insurgents tried unsuccessfully to drive Government troops from their positions commanding the highway northwest of Cordoba city.

Eight Killed in Blast of Powder

MUSKEGO, Wis., April 19 (AP).—The death early today of a seventeen-year-old girl brought to eight the number of persons of one family who were killed when blasting powder stored in the basement of their farm home near here blew up.

The mother, Mrs. Mary Waszak, fifty-four, and seven children were seated around the family radio late night when the explosion demolished their home.

Kidnapper Soon Frees Boy Victim

OAKLAND, Cal., April 19 (AP).—Police reported the apparent kidnapping today of five-year-old William Grinnell Blodgett II, and his release with a note pinned to his play suit by his conscience-stricken abductor.

The penciled note, unsigned, said: "I would rather starve than make his parents suffer."

The boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart William Blodgett, who came here recently from St. Paul, Minnesota.

CONSERVATIVES NOMINATE SOON

Party Slate Will Be Selected At Convention Arranged For May 3

Announcement was made last night by R. D. Harvey, president of the Victoria Conservative Association, that the party nominating convention will be held in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium on Monday, May 3, at 8 p.m.

Ward associations will meet for the selection of delegates to the convention as follows: Ward One, this evening; Ward Two, tomorrow, Wednesday, April 21; Ward Four, Thursday, April 22; Ward Three, Friday, April 23; Ward Five, Tuesday, April 27, and Wards Six and Seven, Wednesday, April 28. All Conservatives resident in these wards may attend their respective ward meetings for the selection of delegates.

Dr. F. P. Patterson, Conservative leader, will attend the nomination convention on May 3, it was announced.

The committee charged with interviewing different persons to ascertain whether or not they would permit their names to go before the nominating convention, reported last night that the response had been most satisfactory, a number of prominent citizens expressing complete willingness to accept nomination for the four Victoria seats.

POPE CANCELS AUDIENCES

VATICAN CITY, April 19 (AP).—Pope Pius canceled all audiences today and remained in his private apartment upon the advice of his physician. Vatican prelates said the Holy Father's condition remained reasonably satisfactory, but that he must take increasing care of his health.

WOULD CONTROL LABOR UNIONS

Premier Hepburn Considers Licensing of Ontario Organizations

TORONTO, April 19 (CP).—Licensing of all international trade unions, as a means of controlling the activities of unions affiliated with the C.I.O., is under consideration by the Ontario Government, Premier Mitchell Hepburn announced today.

Convinced John L. Lewis, C.I.O. head, "is only interested in the fees he can collect from Canadian pay envelopes," the Premier declared if the sending of dues "across the line" could be stopped, present industrial troubles in Ontario would end. Every possible means of preventing the spread of the C.I.O. organization campaign in Ontario is being studied, he said.

While Mr. Hepburn professed no antipathy toward American Federation of Labor Unions, local International Trade Unionists opposed the licensing proposal.

"The thing is ridiculous," commented John Noble, president of the Toronto District Labor Council, largest in Canada. "I don't think he'd ever put it across; the International Trade Unionists of Ontario wouldn't let him."

Council Lops Large Sum Off Estimates At Lengthy Session

Estimates Committee Headed by Mayor Succeeds in Reducing Budget $22,527.80 in Drive Towards Mill Rate Reduction

STRIVING to reduce the tax rate two mills, Mayor Andrew McGavin and the City Council, sitting as an estimates committee, lopped $22,372.80 off the annual budget yesterday. Gross reductions totaled $25,154, with increased estimates of $7,906.20, but boosted revenue of $5,325 brought the net reduction to $22,572.80.

Another meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening.

Increases were made in a grant for celebration of the city's seventy-fifth anniversary of incorporation, $3,500 to $10,000; Children's Aid Society, $5,400 to $6,400, and police salaries, $406.20.

Revenue increases were: Sewer rentals, $2,000; boulevard maintenance tax, $1,000; market fees, $300; poll tax, $500; building inspection fees, $100; plumbing inspection fees, $25; wiring inspection fees, $100; Royal Athletic Park, $200; Macdonald Park, $150; share of motor tax, $250; Goldstream water system, $500; Aged and Infirm Men's Home, $100, and Aged and Infirm Women's Home, $100; a total of $5,325 in increased revenues.

Principal reductions were made in estimates for relief, $10,000; con-

FRANCO ASSUMES SOLE LEADERSHIP

Insurgent Spanish Leader Outlaws All Political Parties but His Own

SALAMANCA, Spain, April 19 (AP).—Generalissimo Francisco Franco by a single decree today converted insurgent Spain into an authoritarian state under his sole leadership, outlawing all political parties except one which will owe allegiance to him alone.

The insurgent leader by the decree signed today assumed complete control of all semi-military as well as political organizations in the territory his armies have taken in the ten-month-old civil war.

It was announced, however, that the action did not "shut the door" to a restoration of the monarchy in Spain should the insurgents emerge victorious in the conflict.

World Condition Far From Happy Says Professor

Dr. F. H. Soward Closes University Extension Lecture Series With Brilliant Summary of "International Situation" in Addressing Big Audience at Girls' Central School

ALTHOUGH economically the world was recovering from the past years of depression, the war menace was growing and the nations were rearming on an unprecedented scale. Consistent adherence by the non-Fascist and non-Communist powers to their principles alone might avert the disaster of world war, Professor F. H. Soward intimated in his characteristically brilliant and masterly review of "The International Situation" given before the big audience that last night attended at the Girls' Central School, the final lecture of the University Extension series.

Convincing figures testifying to the striking improvement in world trade, now about nine-tenths of what it was in 1929, and to the lessening of unemployment were first marshaled. But against this accelerated economic recovery was the gloomy picture of the international political situation and mounting armaments.

GLOOMY OUTLOOK

Under the first, Professor Soward rehearsed the history of the Italo-Abyssinian war, the civil war in Spain, the reoccupation of the Rhineland by Germany, the situation in the Far East, and the repercussions of each and all of these on the temper not only of the nations directly involved, but of all other nations.

Professor Soward was particularly outspoken in his comments concerning the application of sanctions at the time of the Italo-Abyssinian war. Sanctions had never been used as they should have been used, he said, one reason being that the great powers were not willing to take a general risk on collective security as they would have been willing to take a risk for their own individual security.

MOUNTING ARMAMENTS

Speaking of the rearmament situation, he stated that figures showed that for 1936 Italy spent 52.7 per cent of her budget on armaments. Japan spent about 50 per cent. She could not go on increasing her armament programme at the present rate., Japan still had to import a heavy percentage of her cotton, oil and other basic needs. There were already "murmurs of unrest and revolt against the army," and the coming elections in Japan would indicate, he thought, how far the nation's present policy could go.

Germany's armament expenditure was unknown. For the past year she had concealed her budget and no figures were available. It was known she had no gold reserve to speak of and was constantly making levy for her raw materials. A hopeful feature, so far as Germany becoming an aggressor nation was concerned, was that she was already, in peace time, "on rations," and "no nation went to war on ration cards."

France's armaments absorbed 29.7 per cent of her budget. Britain's armament programme used 20 per cent, and the United States used 12.9 per cent. The attitude of the United States in respect of embargo on supply of munitions and loans to combatant nations in the event of war was important. In the event of either Germany or Japan becoming involved in war, American neutrality would prove a hard blow.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Restoration of confidence in the League of Nations at such a time would mean much. It was not the covenant that needed reform so much as the men who composed the League, Professor Soward declared. The League's great weakness was the absence from it of some of the great nations—Japan and the United States. Premier Mackenzie King had last year indicated another great weakness when he had said that the League was based too much on war mentality, the speaker stated.

"The war danger still remains. We are still open to the results of action by reckless or unprincipled individuals in high places. But if we people who are neither Fascist nor Communist stand for our principles, if we stand by our friends, if we believe in what we say, then I think our chances for pulling through are good. But if we are unwilling to do this, then we will deserve to receive the destruction which confronts us," said the lecturer in his final summing up.

PLANS BIG INCREASE IN GOLD PRODUCTION

that has defeated many a mining operation in the past in old river channels, is indicated in Major MacKenzie's report. He recalls that last January 28 that water pressure at the various testing stations at the Melvin was considered low enough to enable operators to extend the crosscut at the top of No. 1 raise right into the gutter. This was accomplished February 8 when the roof laggings in the crosscut were driven through the rim-rock into the ancient channel of Lightning Creek. Five feet of water was found in the channel, a little less than the estimate.

It is pointed out that it is still too early to arrive at any reliable figures as to the value of the ground. recovery was not quite on a par with some of the bonanzas indicated by surface drilling, but it was regarded as highly satisfactory. Major MacKenzie points out that after a gutter has been entered for the first time, a certain period must be allowed for the gravel to "bleed off" and so allow of normal mining. Three months will probably suffice for the narrower channels, he believes.

Meanwhile the leading drives will be continued up and downstream and tests will be made to determine the width of the gutter.

A summary of developments since operations began on July 4, 1934, flollows: Produced 11,075 ounces of gold, valued at $343,325; drove 29,209 feet of timbered gravel drives—over five and a half miles; sunk Melvin main shaft in rock 276 feet; drove 1,985 feet of rock drives; pumped 807,000,000 gallons of water; drilled 6,734 feet of diamond drills; drilled and reamed 3,208 feet of underground drainage holes; installed modern power station of 550 horsepower, later destroyed by fire, and rebuilt plant with 1,100 horsepower; entered the ancient gutter of Lightning Creek.

COUNCIL LOPS LARGE SUM OFF ESTIMATES

tingent fund, $2,500; Willows grounds repairs, $1,000; Ross Bay cribwork, $1,150; new light truck eliminated, $1,200; car for garbage superintendent eliminated, $750; building by-law printing cut out, $900, and street lighting, $2,005.

Throughout a council and estimates session that lasted six hours, Mayor Andrew McGavin urged aldermen to practice stringent economy on estimates, in order that the mill rate might be reduced. He stated it was vitally important that the benefit of reductions should be passed along to taxpayers of the city.

Mayor McGavin moved the publicity bureau grant be cut to $17,500, but an amendment of Alderman Dr. J. D. Hunter to leave the sum at $20,000 carried. Bureau directors some time ago asked for $25,000.

D. A. Macdonald, city comptroller and treasurer, pointed out debt charges had been increased $640 in estimates, but the sum of $134,833.73 should be deducted as interest on the sinking fund. He said there was also $11,500 as an estimated increase in collection of arrears taxes above the anticipated shortage of collection of current taxes.

URGES ANNEXATION

When Alderman John A. Worthington urged annexation of Willows Park to make it part of the city to avoid paying taxes to Oak Bay, and Alderman W. T. Straith saw no reason why the city should pay taxes for the grounds when fairs were held for all, the inter-municipal committee was urged to investigate the matter.

Miss T. Pollock, representing the staff of Victoria Public Library; George A. Okell and Arthur Bishop, representing policemen, firemen and the inside and outside City Hall staffs, urged the council to earniestly consider restoration of pay reductions. They were supported by a large delegation from Civic Employees' Federation. Mayor McGavin promised the request would be thoroughly investigated.

DEATH REMOVES F. G. HUTCHINSON

Served With City Police Department From 1918 to 1934—Funeral Today

F. G. HUTCHINSON

Following a lingering illness, Francis George Hutchinson, sixty-one years of age, retired member of the city police department, passed away Sunday afternoon at his residence, 1165 Chapman Street. Funeral services will be conducted this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at McCall Bros.' Funeral Home. Interment will be made in Colwood Burial Park, and it is requested that no flowers be sent.

For sixteen years, Mr. Hutchinson had been a member of the police department and his death resulted from ill-health, which followed his retirement from the department in October, 1934.

BORN IN ENGLAND

Born in Kendal, England, Mr. Hutchinson spent most of his early life in the Imperial Army, serving with the Somerset and East Yorkshire Regiments, both light infantry units. He served about ten years with the Imperial forces in India.

Returning to England from India, he was married and soon came to America. He traveled first through United States, later coming to British Columbia, where he took a post with the Canadian Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company at Rossland, for five years.

WAS POPULAR MEMBER

He joined the city police department in October, 1918, and during his many years in uniform was one of the most popular members of the force.

He is survived by his widow, at home, and one sister in Liverpool.

INTERNATIONAL PATROL STARTS

rate only one-sixth as high so far in 1937.

NEED IT THEMSELVES

The Welsh steel and iron interests have sought to replace Spanish raw materials through purchases in the United States, Algeria, Sweden, Belgium and France, but have found difficulties making new commercial contacts because of the spirited bidding of other powers and the producers' need for much of their ore themselves.

Nineteen Welsh ships are engaged normally in the Welsh-Basque traffic, four of them being ore-carriers. In the past two weeks only two cargoes have broken through the insurgent blockade line to reach Wales. News that the British freighter Thorpehall reached the port of Musel today bolstered some Welsh hopes that interference with shipping was being curtailed.

ST. MARY'S TROOP

The regular troop meeting was opened on Friday evening by Duty P. L. Pierre Berton. Inspection followed. Announcement was made of the plans for Coronation Day, particularly concerning the torchlight procession and beacon fire at Uplands Point. It was announced that seven members of the troop were successful in passing the Forester's Badge, in connection with the course recently given by the Forest Branch. Those who passed were: Ken Scharff, Walt Wickson, Fred Gornall, Larry Prowd, Tom Clark, Bob Doe, and Ted Clayards. Scout Herbert Marrion received his second class badge and two-year service star and Scout Don McKecknie his three-year star.

Two lively circle tag games were first run off, and were followed by the usual instruction period in the dens. A game of "Captain Kidd" followed, then the troop was given a bit of stave drill, to prepare for the coming activities on May 12. During the evening District Commissioner J. Wise paid a visit, and complimented the troop on the good showing it made in the forestry course.

NORTH QUADRA TROOP

A new patrol, the Lions, was formed on Friday night. Douglas MacArthur was made patrol leader and Cormie MacArthur was named second. Several of the members from other patrols were taken to build up Lions patrol. Four of the members received their second class badges, namely, Jack Graham, Cormie MacArthur, Bob Gorst and Douglas MacArthur. Dr. J. L. Murray Anderson is teaching the boys their St. John Ambulance work. Gordon Rolls, a recruit, attended the meeting, and others are expected to join soon.

FIRST CATHEDRAL TROOP

The meeting of the First Cathedral Troop on Friday night was opened by J. Batey, followed by inspection and horseshoes. J. Batey and D. Warner received their first class badge. David Mortin was awarded his enrollment as a tenderfoot and several other members received badges. Instruction and a general clean-up of the hall followed. A court of honor was then held to discuss further plans for a hike in the near future. The troop committee's card party will be held on the second Monday in May at the home of Mrs. Taylor, 1600 Morrison Street.

ROVER MOOT HELD

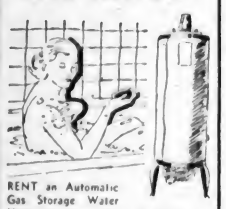

Thirty-five Rovers recently camped under canvas in "The "Glade" at Fairbridge Farm, Duncan, twenty-four members from the Victoria area, representing six crews, and other representatives from Duncan, Nanaimo, Errington and Quamichan, with the latter doing the catering. A general discussion on "Rovering" was held round the council fire, and later another discussion took place with the Fairbridge Farm children. The farm buildings, school, gymnasium and living quarters were inspected. Camp broke up following a short session of discussion. The subjects were: "Rover Secret Scouting," "How to Run a Rover Meeting," "What Is a Royer?" "Rover Quests," and "Rover Island Camp." The Moot expressed a wish to hold a Labor Day week-end camp at Errington. The camp was in charge of Freeman King, Rover commissioner, Victoria district.

Little Stories for Bedtime

Grandfather Frog Gives Up Hope

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

With his legs tied together, hanging down from the end of a string, Grandfather Frog was being carried he knew not where by Farmer Brown's Boy. It was dreadful. Half way across the Green Meadow the Merry Little Breezes of Old Mother West Wind came dancing along. At first they didn't see Grandfather Frog, but presently one of them, rushing up to tease Farmer Brown's Boy by blowing off his hat, caught sight of Grandfather Frog.

Now the Merry Little Breezes are great friends of Grandfather Frog. Many, many times they had blown green flies over to him as he sat on his big green lily-pad, and they are very fond of him. So when this one caught sight of him in such a dreadful position he forgot all about teasing Farmer Brown's Boy. He raced away to tell the other Merry Little Breezes. For a minute they were perfectly still. They forgot all about being merry and dancing.

"It's awful, just perfectly awful," cried one.

"We must do something to help Grandfather Frog," cried another.

"Of course we must," said a third.

"But what can we do?" asked a fourth.

Nobody replied. They just thought and thought and thought. Finally the first one spoke. "We might try to comfort him a little," said he.

"Of course we will do that," they shouted all together.

"And if we throw dust in the face of Farmer Brown's Boy and steal his hat perhaps he will put Grandfather Frog down," continued the Merry Little Breeze.

"The very thing," the others cried, dancing about with excitement.

"Then we can rush about and tell all Grandfather Frog's friends what has happened to him and where he is. Perhaps some of them can help us," the Little Breeze continued.

They wasted no more time talking, but raced after Farmer Brown's Boy as fast as they could go. One of them, who was faster than the others, ran ahead and whispered in Grandfather Frog's ear that they were coming to help him. But poor

A great cloud of dust and sticks and tiny leaves was dashed into his face

Grandfather Frog couldn't be comforted. He couldn't see what there was that the Merry Little Breezes could do. His legs smarted where the string cut into the skin, and his head ached, for you know he was hanging head down. No, sir, Grandfather Frog couldn't be comforted. He was in a terrible fix and he couldn't see any way out of it. He hadn't the least bit of hope left. And all the time Farmer Brown's Boy was trudging along whistling merrily. You see, it didn't occur to him to think how Grandfather Frog must be suffering and how terribly frightened he must be. He wasn't cruel. No, indeed. Farmer Brown's Boy wasn't cruel. That is, he didn't mean to be cruel. He was thoughtless, like a great many other boys and girls, too.

So he went whistling on his way until he reached the Long Lane, leading from the Green Meadows up to Farmer Brown's dooryard. No sooner was he in the Long Lane than something happened. A great cloud of dust and leaves and tiny sticks was dashed in his face and nearly choked him. Dirt got in his eyes. His hat was snatched from his head and went sailing over into the garden. He dropped Grandfather Frog and felt for his handkerchief to wipe the dirt from his eyes.

"Phew!" exclaimed Farmer Brown's Boy as he started after his hat. "It's funny where that wind came from so suddenly."

But you know and I know that it was the Merry Little Breezes working together who made up that sudden wind. And Grandfather Frog ought to have known it, too, but he didn't. You see, the dust had got in his nose and eyes just as it had in those of Farmer Brown's Boy, and he was so frightened and confused that he didn't think. So he lay just where Farmer Brown's Boy dropped him, and he didn't have any more hope than before.

HAVE YOU INDIGESTION, GAS?

YOU lose vital nerve force if you allow your stomach to distress you. Acid stomach, indigestion, gas or biliousness and "costiveness" cause the blood to be poisoned and will eventually destroy health and nerve force. Read this: "Some five or six years ago I had quite a bit of indigestion. I belched gas frequently, had no appetite and felt generally miserable," said Mr. J. Stairs of 729 Maryland St., Winnipeg, Manitoba. "My system was sluggish and I didn't feel right at all—I felt tired all the while—had no energy. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery overcame the stomach distress in short order and I felt fit again." Now size, tabs. 86.

Timber Lease Offer Referred by Council To Its Water Board

City Engineer and Alderman W. Lloyd Morgan Speak Against Proposal of Ryan, Hibberson Company — Kapoor Company Asked To Explain Contract Rumors

AN offer of Ryan, Hibberson Timber Company, Ltd., to sublease a portion of Goldstream watershed timber land now held by the Kapoor Lumber Company was referred to the water committee, headed by Mayor Andrew McGavin by the City Council last evening. G. M. Irwin, city engineer, and Alderman W. Lloyd Morgan spoke strongly against the proposal. Alderman Dr. J. D. Hunter asserted those concerned should be present at the next water committee meeting.

It was decided to ask Walter W. Shorrock, watershed sanitary inspector, to immediately report to the City Council any breaches in the logging contract between the city and the Kapoor Lumber Company. Representatives of the company will be asked to meet the water committee at 4 o'clock on Thursday afternoon to explain rumors that the contract was not being carried out, Mayor McGavin stated.

Thanks were ordered dispatched to Mayor George C. Miller, Vancouver, who presented a brief on behalf of the city at the recent Dominion Conference of Mayors. A request from Victoria Electrical Association for consideration in electrical work planned for the seventy-fifth anniversary of the city was referred to the celebration committee. Victoria Golf Club's request for $3,000 to stage an open golf tournament was also referred to the committee.

GRANTED EXTENSION

Harvey Kavaner was granted a stay until April 30 to exercise his option to lease the grain elevator at Ogden Point.

A resolution from the Police Commission suggested that the council seek a contribution from all city banks for special police protection now provided. Mayor McGavin pointed out banks daily called for the services of an automobile and two policemen, for which no payment was received. He urged action. The finance committee was asked to investigate.

A communication from the executive of Victoria Ratepayers' Association congratulated Mayor McGavin and the council for their economies, and also urged arbitration over School Board estimates. The letter was received and filed.

After hearing a report of Major M. Kirkpatrick Crockett, fair weights and measures officer, the council decided to repair the public scales at a cost of $200.

Ald. Archie Wills distributed briefs of the new building by-law and explained areas of the three fire limits.

FORESTRY CAMPS

Ald. John A. Worthington reported that the forestry camps at Sooke and Thetis Lakes might be kept open until the end of May and would possibly be reopened early in the Autumn. Thanks and appreciation for the work carried out were ordered dispatched to the Ministers of Lands and Public Works and K. C. McCannel, of the Forestry Branch.

Mayor McGavin was asked to consider appointment of delegates to the Portland Rose Festival, to be held from June 9 to 12, after he explained it was the Mayor's duty to name representatives. Aldermen Morgan, Worthington and James Adam are planning to go at their own expense.

Support was given a resolution of the Saanich Council dealing with preservation of native wild flowers, shrubs and plants. It will be dealt with by the Union of British Columbia Municipalities.

A suggestion of Chief Thomas Heatley to establish a no-parking area outside the Courthouse on Bastion Street was referred to the public works executive.

LIBERALS TO STAND AGAIN

Byron Johnson, Alex McDonald and Sidney Leary Seek Re-election

Byron Johnson, one of two Liberal members for Victoria in the Eighteenth Legislature, and Alexander McDonald, former Liberal member for The Islands, will contest those seats in the coming Provincial election, they said yesterday. So will Captain Sidney Leary, former chief whip in the Liberal caucus, he made known on arrival from Kaslo-Slocan.

Mr. Johnson moved to New Westminster after his return at the polls three years ago, and has remained there in business since, with the exception of occasional visits to this city and his regular attendance at the four sessions of the last House.

Mr. McDonald resides in North Saanich, and recently made a tour of Interior sections of the province, making his own inquiry into the operation and effect of market control measures.

Captain Leary arrived in Victoria to take up Kaslo-Slocan matters with members of the Government. All former members expressed interest in the Government's $6,000,000 road programme, the allocations in which are expected to be announced shortly.

What Today Means

"TAURUS"

If April 20 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.; from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. and from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. The danger periods are from 7:30 to 9:30 a.m., from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. and from 9:30 to 11:30 p.m.

If April 20 is your birth anniversary, you were born under the Zodiacal sign Taurus. You have sufficient confidence in yourself to assure your success. Discretion is one of your greatest virtues. Ambition will keep you from being too easily satisfied, and will make you have worthwhile aspirations. You are naturally good-natured, but have a temper that flares up under provocation. You are wise enough not to talk too much, but capable of conversing entertainingly. Being sympathetic, friends will turn to you in time of trouble. You are inclined to become wedded to an idea, but if convinced it is a poor one, you are broad-minded enough to admit it. You perhaps are very emotional, and make no attempt to conceal it. Friday may be the luckiest day in the week for you. Married and engaged couples, and those expecting to become betrothed, might do well to remember that men and women born under the sign of Taurus require the stimulating influence of praise and appreciation to bring out their best points.

If a woman and April 20 is your birthday, you have a vast amount of determination and should be very enterprising. You ought to have a very retentive memory, and find no difficulty in memorizing. Being a Taurian you most likely are very practical and systematic. You know how to keep a secret, and if convinced you are right regarding anything, will seldom yield an inch. Be careful you do not give people the impression you are opinionated. You, perhaps, excel in pursuits of a literary nature. The moss agate and emerald are your natal stones. As a teacher, entertainer, demonstrator, business manager or writer you probably will have little difficulty in finding profitable employment. You may find a great deal of happiness through marriage.

The child born on April 20 must be taught how to relax during adolescence, for children born under this sign are frequently of a tense nature.

If a man and April 20 is your natal day, you should be very skillful in handling money. Your business judgment ought to be excellent. As a banker, public accountant, office manager, school executive, author, editor, manufacturer or artist your way to wealth may be easy.

SCOUTS TO HOLD SPECIAL SERVICE

All Troops and Packs Will Gather In Parliament Square on Morning of May 12

All Boy Scout troops and Cub packs will be represented at a service in Parliament Square on the morning of May 12. The service is being held in conjunction with Coronation celebrations here. Full details will be announced later by Major J. Wise, district Scout commissioner.

In the evening it is proposed to hold a torchlight procession, starting from the Municipal Hall, Oak Bay, at 8:30 o'clock, and proceeding to the Uplands, where a bonfire will be built by St. Mary's Scouts. This bonfire will be the most westerly of a chain of bonfires to be built by Scouts throughout Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Before it is lighted, there will be a salute of twenty-one rockets.

The fire will be built in co-operation with the works department of the municipality of Oak Bay.

PARKS BUILDING BADLY DAMAGED

Firemen's Efficient Work Prevents Spread of Flames to Adjacent Greenhouse

Considerable damage, which has not yet been estimated, was caused by a fire, believed to have been started by spontaneous combustion, which broke out in the city parks building, near Cook and Leonard Streets, Beacon Hill Park, shortly after 2 o'clock, Sunday morning.

Efficient work by the local fire department prevented the spread of flames to the adjacent greenhouse, where thousands of dollars worth of plants are growing, including 750 baskets of flowers to be used in the jubilee celebrations.

The building where the fire occurred is used as an office by W. H. Warren, parks superintendent, and houses equipment, and a truck. Damage to Mr. Warren's office was principally caused by heavy smoke and water.

A truck parked on the premises was saved by firemen.

REVENUES IN RECORD YEAR

Hon. John Hart Discloses Receipts of $27,900,000 In Year Just Closed

British Columbia's revenues for the fiscal year closing March 31 last were $27,900,000, with books still open, or the highest receipts the Province has ever known, Hon. John Hart told Oak Bay Liberals last evening, in the course of an hour's address at St. Mary's Hall, in which he dealt with his administration of the Treasury. Budgeted expenditures in the same period were $25,204,000, leaving a surplus on current account of $2,695,000, he said.

The Minister of Finance shared speaking honors at the meeting with Byron Johnson, introduced by Chairman Walter E. Adams as a probable choice for British Columbia's suggested portfolio of "Trade and Commerce." Mr. Johnson announced he would stand for re-election in Victoria, if given the nomination again.

POSITION STATED

Rehearsing ground covered in his last budget speech, Hon. John Hart conceded the budgeted expenditures of the Province had been increased from $19,997,000 in 1933-34 to $25,204,000 in the fiscal year just closed, but contended that the Province had enjoyed surpluses amounting to $7,877,000 in that period, and from these surpluses had retired debt from revenue to the extent of $5,858,000.

British Columbia's gross debt at present was $187,089,000, including the new $3,000,000 loan; the net debt was $152,395,000, and sinking funds $34,694,000. The increase in debt during the present administration had been $15,576,000; in spite of borrowings of $18,000,00 for relief; $3,000,000 for the Fraser bridge, and $3,000,000 in the recent works loan, Mr. Hart said. Some $691,000 of social service costs had been removed from the municipalities, now in receipt of $2,796,000 yearly in provincial grants of all types.

WHERE MONEY WENT

Instancing increases since 1933 in governmental expenditures on a yearly basis, Mr. Hart said these included $931,000 on account of education, $348,000 in police outlays, $350,000 in respect to old age pensions and relief administration, $400,000 in forest fire prevention sums, $691,000 in provincial assumption of social service bills, $166,000 in mental hospitals upkeep (exclusive of $260,000 in intended new buildings), $277,000 in fresh hospital demands, $240,000 for tubercular care, and $834,000 under road maintenance and other works votes.

Relief had cost $56,280,000 in the Dominion, province and municipalities since its inception in 1930, and present relief lists were 83,000 persons costing a total of $613,000 monthly, compared with 108,000 persons costing $791,000 monthly in March, 1934. The Province had paid $28,965,000 of this sum directly, and advanced $2,113,000 additional for civic costs. Concluding, Mr. Hart said the credit of the Province had been restored, as instanced by the new loan at the most favorable low rate in the history of the Treasury.

TARIFF EFFECTS

Mr. Johnson discussed trade and commerce, to repeat what he said in the House at the last session. Between 1920 and 1933, he stated, British Columbians had paid $25,000,000 more for automobiles than they would have done without tariff protection. In the year 1931 surplus sums paid on protected goods had amounted to $19,000,000 in British Columbia purchases. Insurance companies, he claimed, had extracted surplus credits from the province and placed this money on loan in the East. British Columbia had been virtually denied the privileges of the Dominion Housing Act.

In conclusion, Mr. Johnson re-advocated construction of sports arenas across Canada, including Victoria, on Federal funds, with provincial assistance, on municipal sites, and with independent commissions set up to run them.

A CAMPAIGN ISSUE

The Provincial Government has been successful in making compulsory health insurance the chief issue in the campaign that will end with the election of June 1. In the wording of the plebiscite the people are, to all intents, asked to give the administration a blank cheque in respect to the subject. Mr. Pattullo has indicated his Government's support of the compulsory scheme, even though that Government devised a plan that could not be made operative. Other Ministers are also speaking in favor of compulsory health insurance, one of them indicating his belief that it should cover everyone—willy nilly. That, indeed, seems the goal towards which the proponents of the scheme are tending.

Although the Act now on the statute books is inoperative, the people at least got an inkling of the strength of the new bureaucracy considered necessary for its working. A personnel of seventy-five persons was thought desirable to engage in the preliminary task of setting the plan in motion. That, however, was only an instalment of the number of officials eventually to be selected for office, for it was only a headquarters staff. Under a health insurance commission the need would arise of appointing inspectors, etc., all over the province. It probably would be a safe estimate to say that under the legislation upwards of 200 persons would be employed at an annual cost of a quarter of a million dollars or more. That money, or the greater part of it, would come out of the pockets of those who are to be taxed, both beneficiaries and others. It would be so much less money available for medical and hospital benefits.

Without a single person having benefitted in British Columbia under compulsory health insurance the scheme has already cost the Province a sum of almost $100,000. The expenditure grows every day, although the whole matter of such legislation remains in abeyance. The present Act, Premier Pattullo says, is inoperative. In that case it should not be costing the people of British Columbia a cent. The plebiscite to be taken is going to cost many thousands of dollars on election day. In the meantime a costly Commission and a skeleton staff are in office, awaiting, it is assumed, an affirmative vote of the people. The Government is not warranted in having any such anticipation. If it recalls its caucus meetings when the subject of compulsory health insurance was discussed and the break in the ranks of its supporters over the issue it cannot find any justification for maintaining a costly Commission at a time when, whether or not the scheme will be implemented is to be decided by the people at the polls.

The people are asked to give the Government the power to put compulsory health insurance into force and to apply it progressively. Not only those embraced in the present Act, but many others, in the course of time, are to be brought under its aegis if the answer to the plebiscite is in the affirmative. The people are given no choice as between compulsory and optional health insurance. There are many who would favor the latter plan but who are opposed to the former. Many with such views will vote on election day in the negative, and the Government itself will probably be surprised when it learns how prospective beneficiaries are in opposition to the legislation. Most of the people will vote on the supposition that they are judging the Act now on the statute books. They have nothing else to go on in estimating the ability of the Government to legislate in this regard. The inoperative legislation has been described by its authors as the best that could be devised, and goodness knows it took long enough in the making, and was the subject of intense propaganda work, the cost of which fell on the taxpayers.

If the people want this new kind of taxation and Governmental supervision in connection with their bodily ills it will be because they approve the development of bureaucracy in the administration of their affairs. They will find, should compulsory health insurance come into force, that its beneficiaries still will have to pay, and in some cases pay substantially, for medical benefits and hospital attention sums beyond those set out in whatever is the form of legislation adopted. There are hospital cases that cannot be cured in a brief few weeks. There are periods of convalescence during which persons may be enjoying no salaries or wages. Then, though presumptive beneficiaries, compulsory health insurance will not be operative for them and they will have to pay for certain medical attention they want themselves. These are features of the legislation that have not been thought of very much. Moreover, no scheme of health insurance of a character such as was devised in this province could have been made operative on the basis of the taxes to be collected. That means those taxes would have to be progressively increased. There are many angles to compulsory health insurance that will be made clear to the people in the course of the present campaign. Without much knowledge about what is intended by the Government, the people, even those who support compulsion, cannot vote intelligently.

THE CHAIN OF DESTRUCTION

The writer of an essay on Soil Conservation in a recent number of The Atlantic Monthly, sketches, for purposes of illustration, an impressive picture of the way in which soil destruction has been going on in rural Georgia. On one side of the road is a knoll, a former burying-ground. It is still covered with virgin timber. The soil formation has not been disturbed. You can see two feet of dark brown top-soil, then a reddish sub-soil, and below it a heavy red clay. On the other side of the road a Negro is trying fruitlessly to grow a crop upon land from which soil and sub-soil have disappeared. It has been gradually washed away into nearby ravines. The statement is made that half the county has been likewise ruined by erosion.

The soil of a country is an irreplaceable asset. During the past two centuries, whilst the population of China has increased nearly three-fold, the cultivation of the soil was extended up the mountain sides. Forests were cut down, and with the loss of the forests began the deadly work of floods and erosion. The soil of the slopes was gradually carried down and the floods caused enormous destruction to agriculture on the lower levels. After the fall of Rome the hordes of Islam, who wanted pastures and despised agriculture, destroyed forests and irrigation systems in the Tigris and Euphrates valley. To the evils of soil erosion was added that of wind erosion. Egypt is perhaps the only country in the world that has benefited from soil erosion, but that is because the erosion takes place, not within its own border, but in Ethiopia and along the head waters of the Nile. The United States Department of Agriculture says that during the depression which began seven years ago no less than a million new farms have come into existence, most of them in regions of hilly surface and poor soils. They raised crops in soil that should have been reserved for trees and grass. Soil erosion and floods can be depended on to continue the work of soil destruction on this continent as surely as in Asia.

The process of soil destruction by floods and erosion is completed by over-cropping. Productivity decreases, not merely in quantity measured by bushels or tons per acre, but also in a fatal deterioration in quality, that is to say in food value. The health of human beings depends on the food they eat. If the soil is deficient in certain elements the grains and vegetables grown thereon will also be deficient. Plants certainly cannot pass on to man what they are unable to get from the earth. It is impossible to maintain the health of a population upon food grown in exhausted soil. Pioneering people usually enjoy rugged health. Why? Partly, no doubt, because they are likely to possess vigorous constitutions to begin with. Also they work hard and live in the open air. Perhaps most important of all, their food is rich in the very elements that are necessary to health, elements which a virgin soil supplies in abundant measure. The same is true as to the health of plants. Analyze vegetables or fruit grown on a soil well supplied with mineral elements and compare the result with that of a similar analysis of what has been grown in earth which is deficient in these minerals. Such an analysis and comparison will furnish a clear idea of the food value of each. There is general agreement among medical and food authorities that certain bodily disorders can be traced to a deficiency in this or that mineral element in food.

The chain of destruction is not a long one. First we have the destruction of the soil by erosion and flood, when forests have been destroyed. Added to this we have exhaustion of the soil by over-cropping. Deficiency of plant food results in deterioration of the quality of plants as the food of man. The inevitable consequence is an undernourished population.

RELIC WITH A CURSE

A chapter of accidents has marked Sir Alexander Seton's possession of a "sacred" bone taken from a tomb in Egypt. He lives at Duddingston. Last year he and his wife visited Gizeh. As a curio Lady Seton brought back a glass case containing a piece of bone believed to be part of a skeleton of a Pharaoh of one of the lesser dynasties. Since then the family and the staff have suffered sudden illnesses; there have been two fires in the house and visitors there complain of a robed figure that wanders through the house. Glassware put away in cabinets has been found smashed to atoms in other parts of the room. On one occasion the glass case containing the bone fell from a two-foot high table and was smashed to splinters, but the bone was undamaged. It has been impossible to keep a maid in the house more than one night as each one complained of seeing the spectral robed figure. Sir Alexander Seton, in speaking of the unusual happenings, said he once gave the bone to a surgeon and that day the surgeon's maid broke a leg running away in terror, as she said, from a robed figure. Lady Seton is going to Egypt with the bone to replace it in the tomb from which it was taken.

Note and Comment

By Sandham Graves

The age of miracles is with us again. If you don't believe it, read the papers. You will see where someone is promising to put in the West Coast Road between Jordan River and San Juan River for $400,000. This is to be a sea-girth road, with a view of the Pacific Ocean all the way. It is a grand idea, and some day it will be done; but not for $400,000. Perhaps not for $1,400,000. Between San Juan River and Jordan River thirty-four rivers, streams, and creeks are shown on the maps of the B.C. Lands Department. They were there yesterday, and it is likely they will be there tomorrow, unless an earthquake intervenes. Working from Jordan River westward there are First Creek, China Creek (one of many China Creeks in B.C.), Wolf Creek, Eight Mile Creek, Loss or Lost Creek (fair sized river), Sombrio River, and twenty-eight unnamed rivers, streams and "creeks." Creeks in that part of the country are anything from a trickle of water through a rock gorge to a genuine river with a fine head of water. In Winter all thirty-four gorges flood with rushing torrents of water, draining down off the rocky parapet of hills in the West Coast Range. Sombrio River and Loss or Lost Creek (it is spelled both ways) are the major streams. In between the gorges, gullies, fills and excavations of a seafront road there are twenty-two odd miles of distance, at about $20,000 a mile for road-making. Much of the way is in jagged rock, where the sea has fretted the shore into innumerable jagged bays, inlets, arms, up which the tide pushes to a considerable distance. This, then, is the road that will be built for $400,000. Bridges alone would cost more than that. Then, it is said, logging will pay for the highway, and use it. This is another miracle, for the Department of Public Works will tell you that the Province is paying quite a bit annually to repair highways used by loggers even for short distances like one quarter of one mile. Perhaps, however, with twenty-two miles it would be different. I am in favor of a scenic highway on the West Coast of Vancouver Island. That is why I believe it to be important that we eschew miracles, and stick to the facts.

"Quoddy" is now a school. You will recall the plan launched at Passamaquoddy to harness the tides? It was originally called the "Passamaquoddy Dam Federal Project." Later the words got changed around a bit. After an ambitious start and the expenditure of good round sums of money under army engineers at the site, the governing body in our friendly neighbor to the south began to doubt the efficacy of harnessing the tides in this fashion. There was, too, the slightest suspicion that the tides might refuse to be harnessed. Now the whole area and all is works have been turned over to the National Youth Administration of the United States, as the site and buildings for a technical school. One of the first things that will be taught there, no doubt, will be the legend of Canute.

In Germany duelling has been reinstated as a legal method of settling disputes between adversaries versed in arms. Moreover, it is encouraged. Souvenir cuts on the cheek are worn in colleges with about the same degree of pride that fraternity pins are displayed in this country. For long the special privilege of students, army officers, and professional men, duelling was declared legal by the Nazi regime last week, and available to all Germans. Elsewhere about the world duelling is regarded as a criminal offence. Even a modern D'Artagnan of Budapest had to fight his five or six duels in secret; and he could pick 'em off with a pistol, a sabre, or anything that came handy. One must not be too critical of other lands, however. For all we know this may be a Renaissance, or something.

Canadian mining circles would do well to take note of the slender props beneath a gold price of approximately $35 per fine ounce. The price was artificially created in the first place, and under its influence has led to a tremendous flow of gold to the United States. This accession of bullion has now become embarrassing, if recent reports may be credited. Gold can be marked down, as well marked up, and any such reduction of the present-day price might catch Canadian producers unprepared. If you want to estimate the effect of artificial prices on precious metals, trace back what happened to silver. The word artificial still means "unreal."

Or Charge Duty

English broadcasters are objecting because radio listeners tune in to French radio programmes, many of which are sponsored by British firms. It might be a better idea if the British Broadcasting Company came off its high horse and allowed sponsored programmes to be released over its own stations. It would not only help business but would keep the British listener's interest as well.—W.I.F.

Just a Novelty

Sit-down strikes, the experts say, are on the way out. Like the chain-letter craze, the sweep of miniature golf and the Charleston dance, the sit-down strikes, which at one time were estimated to occur at the rate of one an hour, are gradually diminishing. Today observers of the industrial scene estimated there were less than a dozen actual sit-downs over the country. So far sit-down strikes have included school children, teachers, lovers and legislators, caddies and chocolate makers, towboat crews and tavern-stayers, convicts and candy-sellers, pin-setters and violet-pickers, on various occasions in almost every part of the United States. They even spread to Canada, where several important ones took place. Varied were the causes of the sudden sit-down epidemic: When a husband's affections cooled, an official declined to repair a street, an innkeeper turned aside demands for "nickel beer," a city sought to collect a newer tax from a foreign consul, a school board refused to rehire a favored instructor. Therefore "sit-downs" were the uniform answer. But they are just a novelty which will wane as fast as they started.—J.D.

Phil Was Paddled

Phil, of the Arcade Building, blithely drove into his favorite garage, firm in his belief that nobody knew it was his birthday. But attendants had secured information from a girl friend, and knew the lad was celebrating an important day with an extra milk shake or two. He was persuaded to alight from his machine. Attendants formed a line and administered a sound paddling before Phil could make a break for the door. Aubrey ran into the victim a few minutes later, and reported he was in no fit condition to go on a sit-down strike. . . . Aubrey, in a reminiscent mood, recalled the days of his youth when he lived on Birdcage Walk and arose at 4 o'clock in the mornings to do his homework before wood chopping and a long hike to school. We remember a friend at Monterey Avenue school who was more fortunate. He used to hide his books under a wooden sidewalk near the school, pick them up twenty minutes before school opened, and then rely on his height to gaze over the shoulders of his classmates. Needless to say, he did not pass very often. . . . Upon gazing at our girth, our tobacconist friend remarked: "Eating maketh a full man." For his information we believe the quotation is: "Reading maketh a full man. . . . Years ago Bill, the Broad Street barber, applied for a job cutting hair before he knew much about the profession. He amazed the boss by asking for more money than the job paid. When asked for a reason, he burbled, "It's harder work when you don't know much about it."—G.B.

Another Shadow?

My friend the milkman, private sleuth employed by yours truly on the wrestling activities, reports that the "Red Shadow" embarked from the Seattle boat Saturday afternoon disguised as a minister. Unknown in the ring and unknown in everyday life, that's the masked grappler who has been packing in the cash customers all along the Coast. He did this Saturday evening at the Tillicum gymnasium. . . . After seeing the mysterious pachyderm in action, we are of the opinion that he is not the same "Red Shadow" who appeared here some months ago. He has the "do nothing, know nothing look," stalks around like an old man, just like his predecessor, but his back-breaker, the "Shad's" pet hold, was different. . . . And then the mole under the right arm was missing. Of course, in these days of beauty parlors, a mere mole means nothing, but it would be hard to picture a husky 235-pound pachyderm strolling into a beauty parlor to have a mole removed. Women have their faces lifted, but men, sometimes a little vain, seldom go this far.—S.T.

Souvenir Labels

The Coronation is more than tradition, symbolism or pageantry—it is Big Business, with all the Empire sharing in it. There came to me the other day a bulletin from a philatelic firm, describing Coronation stamps in the Crown Colonies, and informing the interested that these could be procured for the sum of approximately $6.85. Now on some of these stamps there appear the Crown, the Sceptre the Orb, and the Sword of State. But the same people maintain that these symbols cannot be reproduced properly within the limitations of a single stamp, and with that idea in view, a number of souvenir labels (unofficial, of course) have been printed at moderate cost. Mind you, this firm is to be commended for taking opportunity by the hand. Coronations only come, on the average, once in thirty-odd years. When they appear, it is only natural we should make the best of them.—B.G.

Letters to the Editor

No letter to the Editor will be inserted except over the proper signature and address of the writer. This rule admits of no exception. No letter should exceed 500 words in length.

AT THE JUBILEE HOSPITAL

Sir,—In reference to Mrs. Claire Sheridan's letter. She has written a second time admitting that her letter was misleading as to facts—but one point was not cleared up. That the regulation: Patients not allowed in each other's rooms without permission—was made at the request of the patients themselves to protect them from unwelcome intrusion, and it does not prevent them from having anyone they want. So the regulation is not (however reasonable) an order imposed by the authorities (willy-nilly) on the patients.

A sitting-room for the men is not possible at present. Mrs. Hogarth's suggestion of a bench lining the verandah, and an awning too, would be of benefit for outside sitting accommodation for the women, though indoors they are well provided for—but for the men as shelter with a bench on their playing ground and chairs or benches at different point in the grounds would prove an inestimable blessing for those who want air, the change and variety, without having the strength to walk far or stand for any length of time. There is only the bench by the Fort Street entrance as far as I know.

MINING SCANDALS

Sir,—Much of your space recently has been devoted to the Hedley Amalgamated scandal. One thing stands out clearly in my mind in respect to "milking the public" in regards to mining stocks and similar company promotions, and that is that The Colonist has been particularly silent in regard to this kind of "fleecing the public." The space your paper has given recently to the Hedley Amalgamated scandal is the first time I have ever known your paper give any such space to the shady tactics of mine or other like company promotions. Yet you must know, as everyone knows, that the number of outright scoundrels and others of equal guilt who have robbed the British Columbia public has been legion. During the last twenty-five years I have bought shares in mines or oils in answer to "apparently" honest advertisements in your paper, or elsewhere—a total of some eleven or twelve different shares in as many different companies. Not one of these has returned me a single nickel in dividends or maintained their original "value" (or rather, cost to me). On the whole, they never had any value—not to the public. Only two of these "ventures" remain out of the original eleven or twelve. And of these two I sold my shares recently in one of them for $10 on each $25 they cost me.

One of the now defunct companies I bought shares in was known as the Ogdad Gold Mines Co. No one will ever know the loss and sorrow this company and its "live wire" agents left in their wake after they broke up and scattered to parts unknown. Just one company of many similar.

Another thing I would like to point out (or question) is this: Why is it that only just now, after the public has been so disgracefully let down regarding the Hedley Amalgamated, has The Financial News come out in the open to acquaint the public of facts it should have made the public acquainted with long before the public was left "holding the bag?" That is a fair question. Can it give a satisfactory answer? It allows the horse to be stolen—now it comes along and "locks" the stable door (with a big bang!)

The Hedley Amalgamated Co. is not the only company the public have put money into on the strength of (seemingly?) honest and well appearing advertisements, articles and notes in the press re mining and oil companies, and the public has realized later it has been sadly deceived. The Western Canada Mining News, of Vancouver, gave just such articles, notes, etc., re the Ogdad Gold Mining Co., yet the shares of the mine are not now, and I have good reason for believing never were, worth the cost of the paper they were printed on. I am under the impression this company never even went near their mine, or made any attempt whatever to develop the property.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily Colonist of April 20, 1887)

Won Medal—Donald Macpherson, Cowichan, received a medal and diploma for oats exhibited at the Colonial Exhibition last year. Our worthy friend Donald, who, by the way, is somewhat famous for his success as a horse raiser, is to be congratulated on his newly acquired honors. His exhibit is said to have been superior to anything of the kind from the Dominion.

Newfoundlanders Coming—A small party of fishermen from Newfoundland passed, says the Manitoban paper, through Winnipeg on Monday on their way to British Columbia, where they intend to establish a colony and engage in agricultural and fishing pursuits. They will report on the prospects of the Pacific Coast, and if favorable, there will be a general exodus of Newfoundlanders to the western seaboard of the Dominion. A large number will migrate this season on the strength of the accounts already received from the Coast.

First Strawberries—The first consignment of delicious strawberries this season arrived by the steamer George W. Elder on Monday night.

RED CROSS IS GIVEN PRAISE

HUGH BIRCH-JONES

Warm praise was given the organization of the Red Cross in this Province at the annual meeting of the central council, held in Toronto last week, when Norman Sommerville, K.C., chairman, declared the success achieved in British Columbia made it one of the brightest spots in the Dominion.

With an organization similar to that of Ontario, it was declared that work is being carried on here along the right lines.

The Province was represented at the meeting by Colonel J. F. Tait, Vancouver, president, and Hugh Birch-Jones, commissioner. Mr. Birch-Jones was forced to return to Victoria earlier than he anticipated to approve a change of plans for the hospital to be erected at Kyuquot.

He is particularly delighted in the forward steps made by the Junior Red Cross this year. Last April, he said, there were 477 junior branches in schools, with a membership of 12,549. This year, 814 branches have a total membership of 22,624.

A splendid display of linens, blankets, towels, kitchenware and china was proudly shown by the commissioner. This donation from junior branches was made possible by children collecting coupons from various packages of commodities and forwarding them to headquarters here.

TRAINING SHIP IS ADVOCATED

W. H. Hotham Addresses Members Of Gyro Club on Ex-Convict Work in B.C.

A training ship manned by a staff of highly-trained navy men and operated under naval discipline was the suggestion made by W. M. Hotham for curbing young criminals in their evil ways, in an address to the Gyro Club at the Empress Hotel yesterday.

Operating on the assumption there is good in every man, Mr. Hotham said the officers of the training ship would work with the idea of developing the good characteristics in the boys. A hulk, suitable for the purpose of a training ship, could be secured and anchored off Inskip Island, near Esquimalt, the speaker declared.

Mr. Hotham paid high tribute to the prison and Government officials who take such a sympathetic interest in ex-convicts and co-operate with the John Howard Society, in which he is an energetic worker. However, he said, the different characters in the penitentiary must be segregated.

The society is at work at the present time in an attempt to correct the present code books, so that young offenders will not be put in with hardened criminals. The average age of holdup men in Canada, the speaker said, is twenty-two years, an age when the young man is anything but a hardened criminal.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

"COWBOY"—A NATIVE OF NEW YORK

Life's little irony—the valiant heroes of our great and not unsung West, the invincible conquerors of our "Westerns"—alas, they bear the name associated with the crime they deem the most heinous of them all—for which the unwritten law still prescribes the death penalty.

The term "cowboy," which immediately brings to mind visions of Buffalo Bill, virgin woods and prairies, sheriffs, bucking broncos, outlaws and posses arbitrating their differences with six-shooters—originated in New York State; indeed, not very far from that rather narrow, hardened artery known paradoxically as Broadway.

The first cowboys most probably clanked their spurs on what are now the golf links of Westchester County.

They were a band of Tory marauders who periodically swooped down upon the more or less isolated residents, robbing, destroying and occasionally killing those they did not like. Members of their own political party as well as the Whigs were the victims of their visitations.

It was their cattle-stealing that earned for them the epithet "cowboys," which rose and rose to respectibility, fame and the movies

NANAIMO WINS DANCING PRIZES

Takes First Place in Five Groups—June Gava Is Major Winner

NANAIMO, April 19. — Colorful dancing was witnessed at the final day's session of the Upper Island Muscial Festival, which drew a large attendance.

Nanaimo dancers won first place in five groups, and June Gava captured the major prize of the competitions with 86 marks; Raymond Kynoch was second with 80.

Council Hears of Work With Blind

NANAIMO, April 19.—The work of the British Columbia Institute of the Blind was interestingly outlined at the city council meeting tonight by Miss Stark, of Vancouver, who stated that out of 100 blind persons in Vancouver, nine were from Nanaimo district, receiving institute service.

Mrs. C. H. Barker, of Bastion Chapter, I.O.D.E., who introduced the speaker, expressed regret that the chapter's tag day for the blind had not been included in the tag days listed for 1937.

Mayor Barsby promised that she would have audience with the board to discuss the matter.

JOHN BULL BRACED TO RESIST SHOCK

has predicted his own resignation soon after the Coronation.

Chamberlain was expected to advise the House of Commons of the need for $150,000,000 in new revenue, necessary for rearmament.

Britain's new 1937-1938 budget has been built against the background of her $2,000,000,000 a year rearmament programme. Closely guarded as are budget plans, common sense tells the Briton he is going to pay higher income tax, and will have to dig deeper for other direct and indirect taxes.

DEARER GASOLINE

The gasoline tax may be increased. It is now 16 cents a gallon, making the cost 34 cents a gallon. The horsepower tax on automobiles, reduced now to $3.75 a year per horsepower, would be returned to the old figure of $4.75 or $4.85, which ruled for many years. Thus, the owner of a twenty-five-horsepower automobile would pay the Government $125.

The genera' expectation is that the tax rate on incomes, now 22.50 per cent, will be increased by 1.25 per cent. An increase of 2.5 per cent is discussed by some observers.

Were it levied, taxpayers would pay automatically to the Government one dollar of every four they earned—five shillings per pound. Exemptions, such as for married men, families and dependents are subject to minor changes when budget figures are altered.

NO INSURANCE

Increase of income tax tomorrow, effective from April 1 when the financial year ended, was considered so certain that Lloyd's wrote virtually no insurance against such a rise. Rates quoted have been prohibitive.

Speculative insurance has been banned anyway since the budget flare-up last year, which resulted in the resignation of J. H. Thomas from the Cabinet.

Chamberlain's effort probably will be to provide added revenue for rearmament and yet spare the necessities and minor luxuries of the poorer classes as far as possible.

BANDITS HOLD UP CASHIER

—WINNIPEG, April 19 (CP).—Two armed bandits held up the cashier at Brewery Products, Limited, here today and escaped with at least $2,500.

WORKERS PREFER NOT TO SIT DOWN

Meeting of Jobless on Relief Breaks Up Quietly—Ignore Strike Suggestion

BURNABY, April 19 (CP)—A delegation of almost 300 unemployment relief workers left the Burnaby Municipal Hall quietly, late today, after their demands for an increased relief allowance had been refused by Commissioner Hugh M. Fraser and provincial authorities at Victoria.

The meeting, which assembled in the hall in the morning, broke up in the late afternoon, the men apparently ignoring the suggestion of a sit-down strike, to start immediately in the hall, which had been advocated by several speakers.

LEAVING CANADA DURING WEEK-END

Defence Minister Sails for England On Saturday—Taking Complete Staff With Him

OTTAWA, April 19 (CP)—Defence Minister Ian Mackenzie will sail for England on Saturday, on the Empress of Australia. It is understood several members of the Government party proceeding to the Coronation, and thereafter to the Imperial Conference, will also leave Canada during the week-end.

The importance of defence matters on the Imperial Conference agenda is indicated by the complete staff which the minister will take with him. Heads of all the senior departments are going, among them the deputy minister, Lieut.-Colonel L. R. Lafleche.

WHY PUT UP WITH PIMPLES, WRINKLES AND A SALLOW SKIN?

So many women throw their charm and beauty away — look years older than they are—because they neglect common constipation. They forget that badly balanced meals, over a period of years, can change how they look and feel.

Often their menus lack the "bulk" needed for regular habits. Then constipation, the beauty-killer, sets in. Other effects may be headaches, listlessness, sleeplessness.

Get "bulk" back into your meals with a delicious cereal: Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. It absorbs moisture within the body, forms a soft mass, gently cleanses the system.

Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily, either as a cereal or in cooked dishes. ALL-BRAN is guaranteed. Try it a week. If not satisfactory, your money will be refunded by the Kellogg Company. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London.

HAS NEW IDEA IN INSURANCE

D. Davenport, of San Francisco, Making Survey of Situation Here

Victoria is being visited by Dixwell Davenport, of San Francisco, vice-president of the New Jersey Fire Insurance Company, with headquarters in New York. Mr. Davenport's visit is a rather important one, as he is making a survey of fire insurance here and is authorizing the agents of the company to follow a new schedule of rates with some reduction in basic rates and also reduced rates if property owners will carry what is regarded as a proper proportion of insurance to the value of the property.

This is a new idea in connection with insurance, explained Mr. Davenport. The reductions can be quite substantial, he stated, if the owners will take coverage sufficient to represent the possible losses. He points out that both parties to the insurance contract benefit by this course.

The local agents will be authorized to appraise the values. The local representative is Johnston & Company, Ltd., of which J. M. Falkins is actively engaged. Mr. Davenport was accompanied by Herbert R. Fullerton, Vancouver, of the firm of Blane, Fullerton & White, which represents the company on the British Columbia mainland.

Mr. Davenport is not a stranger to Victoria. Thirty-six years ago he organized the Island Board of Underwriters and also the Mainland board, which later absorbed the whole field.

The New Jersey company was a board company until 1929, Mr. Davenport explained, but in that year it was decided to part company with what is known as the board companies, and since then has operated independently.

Dominion Officers Are Speakers at Rally Here

An intimate glimpse into the organization and working of the Dominion Council of the Presbyterian W.M.S. was given by Mrs. W. A. McLennan, the president, at a rally held by the Vancouver Island Presbyterial of the W.M.S. in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church last evening.

Mrs. McLennan and Mrs. J. B. Holman, young women's secretary, also of Toronto, were welcomed by a large gathering of interested members and their friends and their addresses were of the greatest help and inspiration to all who heard them.

VALUE OF MISSIONS

Mrs. McLennan spoke on "Our Share in the World Mission of Christianity," telling of the great influence of the missionary movement in the growth of the church throughout the world and as a preventative against "congregationalmindedness."

Workers in the W.M.S. were banded together by a common interest and were in a sense "shareholders" in a great "company," she said. She quoted figures to show the effect of the years of depression upon the general finances of the organization. She referred to the foreign mission fields of Indian, China, Formosa, Korea, Manchuria and British Guiana and told of what was being done in each place.

YOUNG WOMEN'S WORK

Mrs. Holman directed her remarks towards a record of the share of the church and missionary society in the development of Canada, dealing with the part played by the young women's groups. She spoke of the pioneer mission worker, Lucy Baker, whose early efforts for the Indians had been the foundation of what is being accomplished today. The hospital work in the Klondike days, teaching and preaching among the Ukrainians and other "new Canadians" and the work among the Chinese in British Columbia and in Montreal were all touched upon by the speaker.

The latest development in home mission enterprise was among the French-Canadians in Quebec, 3,000 former Roman Catholics having now joined the Presbyterian Church, she stated. Private classes were being held, clinics and study groups formed and the work was progressing with most satisfactory results.

Mrs. A. J. Kennedy, on behalf of the W.M.S. members, thanked the speakers for their addresses. Mrs. A. A. MacKinnon, Presbyterial president, was in the chair. Mrs. D. B. Keir sang a solo and the rally was brought to a close by Rev. J. Mackie Niven.

Royal Bride Is "Slimming"

Princess Juliana of Holland, who recently married Prince Bernhard Zu Lippe-Biesterfeld, is said to be in "reduced circumstances." The circumstances, however, do not refer to monetary matters but purely to avoirdupois. The princess, shown above with her husband during a shopping expedition in Paris following their return from a three-month honeymoon, lost a total of twenty-eight pounds during the wedding trip. Note the slimness of the royal bride, thought to have been the result of sporting activities such as skiing, etc.

Y.W.C.A. Notes

COUNCIL WEEK-END

A council retreat was held by the Y.W.C.A. Girls' Council during the week-end at a delightful Summer home, which was generously lent to the girls. The programme for the week-end was primarily to evaluate the work done by the girls' department during the past Winter, and make new plans for the Spring and Summer.

During Saturday evening much discussion ensued regarding the Winter's programme, the girls feeling that their council aims had been carried out quite satisfactorily and that a new 'm should be added, making the aims of the Y.W.C.A. Girls' Council as follows: To foster a spirit of loyalty to the Y.W.C.A. and to the principles for which it stands; to encourage co-operation and understanding among the groups which comprise the girls' department; to sponsor inter-department functions and the monthly publication of the department paper, "Y-Ways," and to study additional needs in the department and present same to the girls' committee.

CORONATION BANQUET

The regular council meeting was held on Sunday morning, the main item of business being plans for the Spring banquet. It was decided to have a Coronation banquet, with a toastmistress and toast list. It was also decided to have several musical items and a speaker.

Plans for a Summer camp were discussed. The Vancouver Y.W.C.A. camp at Galiano Island was described. This camp gives an opportunity to juniors, intermediates and seniors to enjoy a supervised girls' camp at moderate rates. It is hoped many Victoria girls will take advantage of this opportunity.

GLEN LAKE CAMP

During July a camp for senior girls is to be sponsored by the Victoria association at Glen Lake. This camp will be of informal nature and will make week-end trips to the camp possible for business girls.

"Christian Emphasis in the Y.W.C.A." was the topic for the Sunday afternoon discussion. This was in preparation for the Victoria girls' part in the provincial regional conference of the Y.W.C.A. at Camp Fircom, on Gambier Island, during the May 24 week-end.

Besides the discussion part of the week-end the girls went for beach rambles and later enjoyed the comfort of easy chairs and open fire. A feeling of happy comradeship permeated the whole week-end.

Tennis Club Has Jolly Fete Day

The Metchosin Tennis Club entertained at a "country tea" on Saturday at "Roedean," the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. W. Jennings. The house was gay with a profusion of daffodils and plum blossoms, and the individual tables were most artistically arranged with primroses and muscari.

Little Valerie Potter presented Mr. R. R. Gibbs, Victoria, with his prize of one half dozen tennis balls, which he later donated to the Junior Club. Fortune telling, in charge of Mrs. R. S. Peecock, added to the afternoon's entertainment.

The committee in charge of the tea consisted of Mesdames Jennings, J. D. McCreight, I. Jonas, assisted by Misses Gloria Mutter, Sheila Pennington, Paula Jonas, Gwennie-May Ellwood and Mary Martin.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Jennings were hosts to the Junior Tennis Club at an enjoyable party. The games and dancing were in charge of Misses Mary Gray and Beth Ellwood, Messrs. Harold Gray and Bob Jennings. At midnight, supper was served. At the close of the evening, the young people gave a hearty vote of thanks and three cheers for Mrs. Jennings.

MAYFAIR NEEDLE-ART—DESIGN NO. 334

"East or West, Home's Best," truly an appropriate phrase to decorate a pretty sampler. Use delf blue or cornflower blue linen for the background and work the flowers, trees, cottage and lettering either in the colors suggested on the pattern or in shades which you yourself will blend to carry out the color scheme of the room in which the picture is to be hung. It will lend a cheering homey atmosphere to a hall; is ideal near a fireplace or a living-room chair and is most appropriate for a young boy's or young girl's room. This is one of those pretty pieces which become more cherished in a happy home as the years go by. Only simple stitches, which are quick to work, have been used throughout. The pattern includes transfer of the design, complete instructions for embroidering and finishing, color suggestions as well as detail chart of stitches used.

Chapel Window Dedicated

A most impressive ceremony took place at Queen Margaret's School Chapel, Duncan, on Sunday afternoon, when Rev. Canon Nunns, Victoria, dedicated a memorial window. The window, a lovely stained glass one, depicting the figure of St. Hugh of Lincoln, is in memory of the late Charmian Brown, daughter of Mr. T. A. Brown, Victoria, who was a pupil of Queen Margaret's, and during her last year there was head of St. Hugh's House. Rev. Arthur Bischlager, Vicar of St. Paul's, Esquimalt, and formerly honorary chaplain of Queen Margaret's, conducted the service, Canon Nunns preaching the sermon. The school choir, under the direction of Miss G. White, sang an anthem during the service, which was attended by many relatives and friends from Victoria as well as school staff and pupils, the chapel being filled to capacity.

C.G.I.T. NOTES

VICTORIA

The regular meeting of the Victoria C.G.I.T. Girls' Council was held in the Y.W.C.A. on Saturday evening. As the girls arrived they were divided into three teams, under the leadership of Irma Dakers, Frances Wallace and Margaret Walker. Then each team went on a twenty-minute penny hike. When the girls had returned, the business meeting was held, the president, Irma Dakers, in the chair. A lively sing-song was led by Miss Irma Dakers. Miss Minnie Beveridge led in an interesting discussion entitled "Making a Life, Not a Living." Miss Rachel Hull led in a short devotional service. The meeting closed with the singing of "Taps." Refreshments were served by the social committee.

Peerless Fashion Patterns

Edited by LAURA I. BALDT, A.M. (For many years Assistant Professor of Household Arts, Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, N.Y.)

So smart, new and young, you'll hardly believe this individual dress could be so very simple to sew.

If you copy the original in lovely blue crepe, you'll have something bright and gay for your waning Winter wardrobe. You'll also be prepared for Spring days without a coat for town.

The buttoned shoulder accents the flattering neckline. A tailored feeling is noted in the stitched back pleat from neck to hem. It will give you height. Two hip pockets and a single breast pocket add a sportive air.

Crepe silk print is another enticingly lovely idea.

The sleeve cut in one with the shoulder makes this model exceptionally quick to sew. Note the very smart long-sleeved version.

For Summer, you'll want to make it in a bright linen or a peasant cotton print.

A diagrammed chart tells you step by step how to cut and stitch it.

Style No. 2823 is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20 years, 30, 32, 34, 36 and 28-inch bust. Size 16 requires three and one-quarter yards of 39-inch material with two yards of ribbon for the belt.

The Spring and Summer Fashion Book is filled with lovely designs for everyday wear which are easy and inexpensive to make.

Esquimalt Families Helped by Society

At the April meeting of the Esquimalt Friendly Help Society, Mrs. Warder, secretary-treasurer, gave a summary of the work of the society during the past year, and a financial statement.

Fifty-one families received help during the year as well as Christmas hampers; thirty-one families the hampers only. In addition, twenty-three single men received help regularly, with an extra grant at Christmas. Hot cross buns were distributed at Easter. Only one family went to Sunshine Camp.

The following were some of the expenditures for the year: Groceries, $337.42; milk, $453.88; fuel, $146.10; medicine, $18.79. New clothing cost $130.61 and a quantity of used clothing was distributed. Thirty-two pairs of new shoes were bought and twenty-four pairs mended. A wheel chair was rented for an invalid.

No appeal was made during the year but donations were gratefully received.

Miss Daphne Pooley was appointed secretary as Mrs. Warder asked to be relieved of some of her duties.

Visitors Attend School Classes

A number of interested parents, friends and old girls accepted the invitation of Miss Barton, headmistress of St. Margaret's School, to attend the "open day" at the school yesterday.

Many of the visitors arrived in time for prayers in the gymnasium after which one of the Drama Festival plays, by the small children, was presented. During the morning the visitors attended the various classes which were in progress, the regular routine of the classroom being carried on regardless of the spectators.

There was an interesting display of handwork, which attracted a great deal of attention, the design and workmanship of garden projects, drawing and painting, and embroidery by the juniors and more advanced weaving, basketry and dressmaking by the intermediate and senior girls being noteworthy.

The gymnastic and dancing classes appealed to the visitors, all of whom commented upon the smart appearance of the pupils.

THE GIRL with a C·C·M· is RIGHT IN FASHION

THERE is no let up in the vogue for cycling that started with Hollywood actresses four years ago and swept from there across the world. Right here in Canada today there are more C.C.M. bicycles being ridden by women and girls than at any time during the past thirty years. Cycling is the smart way to exercise and slenderize—and it's lots of fun, too. The girl without a C.C.M. these days is simply out of fashion.

The new 1937 C.C.M.'s set the pace in bicycle styles. Very swagger designs. Brilliant sapphire or maroon enamelled frames, with bright parts plated with shining chromium. The minute you see them in the store you'll want to ride a C.C.M. bicycle down the avenue. When you do you'll be thrilled with the ease and smoothness with which you glide along. You'll be glad that it's smart to ride a C.C.M.

Miss Keller, blind and deaf since birth, turned the gift over to the fund for relief of Japan's blind.

CHAPTER XXIX

Walking back toward the house, Ronny said, "I'm going down to New York tomorrow, Lucille. When I come back, we'll talk things over—about The Guardian, too." Did she sense the promise of something else to be talked over? The bright sparkle of her black eyes told him she did. "After all," he said then, "it's for Mom to decide about the paper, but at least we can make suggestions."

After supper, Lucille went home for fresh clothes and Ronny sat by his mother's bed and lost no time in getting to the question he was determined to have answered before he went away again.

"A long time ago you said something in one of your letters about Lucille's 'unfortunate engagement.' You never mentioned it again. I've been a little curious to know who the man was—and what became of him."

Mrs. McAllister looked at him steadily, then said: "You know him, son. I think he was the only person in Maple Village you ever really disliked—Tom Burton."

"Lucille was engaged to Tom Burton?" Ronny said, slowly. He remembered Tom Burton in high school, a profane rowdy and a bully who had openly boasted his father was one of the most notorious bootleggers in the country. He said: "He must have changed, a great deal."

"For the worst, maybe," his mother replied. "He grew up to be the village tough if we ever had one. Drunk most of the time and always getting into scrapes. Nobody could understand it. Some said Lucille set out to save his soul. Maybe so. She's a mighty earnest church worker. But all I know is that Lucille's mother came over here crying and said Lucille was going to marry him."

Ronny shook his head. "I don't begin to get it. What broke it up?"

"I don't know that anything did."

Mrs. McAllister said, "Tom just disappeared one night and wasn't seen around these parts for over a year. He popped up about the time you were here last Winter. Then he went off again." She said after a pause, "I told you once I thought Lucille would make some man a good wife, Ronny. I still think it, but—I mean, if you're interested in Lucille, you ought to ask her about Tom. You don't want a thing like that hanging over you."

When Lucille came back Ronny had retired; and when she slipped past the closed door of his room a little after seven next morning, Ronny was sitting in the smoker of a Boston-bound train, telling himself, "I won't ask her about Tom Burton. When I come back, I'll simply ask her to marry me—and let her tell me about Burton of her own free will."

Bryant Wilson was a confident weather forecaster. He had told the young pilot of the plane that flew them to New London, and he was now telling the lean, grim-faced fisherman who stood on the dock watching with evident apprehension as Bryant came aft to cast off.

"Last night's storm," said Bryant, cheerily, "spent itself long ago. She may be a little choppy out there, but it won't last." He went forward into the glass-enclosed pilot shelter and a moment later the Water Bug slid away from the dock. Bryant reappeared, lifted a hand: "If we aren't tied up here by midnight, you can call out the submarines!" The man standing on the dock was staring beyond Bryant at the slim figure of a girl and he mumbled under his breath, "Damfool! He's got no right takin' that girl out there."

That girl sat in a small canvas bottom chair well within the protecting walls of the shelter. Smiling up at the pudgy face of the young man at the wheel, she said: "I hope you're right about the weather, Bryant. If the water's as cold as the air, I shouldn't like to go swimming in it." She was not really cold, for she was wearing a heavy sweater next to her frock and a leather coat over that, but when the wind whipped in it nipped at her silken legs and left her face feeling slightly damp.

Bryant said: "If I'm wrong, it's the first time in forty year o' sailin' the seven seas, miss." He hooked an arm over the wheel and swung around to look at her. "It's growing calmer by the minute Sandra . . . Comfortable?"

"Fine, thanks." She thought, 'I'll be able to handle him if he doesn't get lit up.'

"Know where we're headed?"

"Block Island?"

"Roughly," he said. "I have a beautiful chart, an expensive compass and a perfectly crumby sense of direction. We may make it."

"Could I borrow the binoculars?" she asked, reaching up. "I want to see if Matt's on the job yet."

He took the glasses from the wall of the shelter and handed them to her. "She's not pitching as much as she was. Notice? I tell you these clouds don't mean a thing."

She nodded to his question. He was right. The Water Bug was riding with less effort now.

Sandra put the glasses to her eyes and adjusted the lenses not interested in the scene but preferring this to simply sitting there holding her hands. "I want to see if Matt's on the job yet?" she had said to Bryant. She had been thinking of Matt Stanley then, was suddenly thinking of him again, of what he had said to her when she was leaving the office last night. Bryant hadn't given her an opportunity to see Matt alone and it was only when they passed him in the hall that she told him, "It's no soap on that divorce case Matt."

And Matt scowling had shot back: "Don't think you're crazy getting out. It probably won't be fine for at least a week, so there's time to do a good job."

The binoculars sank to her lap. She didn't want to think about that now. She had been thinking of Enid and that incredible telephone conversation half the night—Enid asking her calmly why the Ancell case correspondent should interest her. She shut her eyes and tried to visualize Block Island . . . it was only a little startled when she felt Bryant's hands on her face, his lips pressed [illegible]

"Couldn't go on without that," Bryant said. And that won't hold me very long, I'm afraid." She saw him leap back to the wheel and at the same moment realized it was raining—rain driven by a rising wind that wailed ominously as it swept over them.

FINANCE - COMMERCE - MARKETS

Security Prices Little Changed At Wall Street

NEW YORK, April 19 (AP).—Although stocks did better on balance in today's market, trends were rather conflicting in an exceptionally quiet session.

Transfers amounted to 817,320 shares, the smallest turnover for a full day's proceedings since September 17, last year. The total compared with 1,058,210 last Friday.

Selected steels, coppers, rubbers, rails and specialties emerged in front. But trading lacked breadth from the start, only 749 issues changing hands. Of these 320 advanced, 265 declined and 164 were unchanged.

An early rally in commodities, following a brisk comeback in foreign centres, stimulated stocks mildly. Staples futures backed away in late afternoon and finished highly mixed.

Traders, on the whole, were unusually timid so far as the general run of stocks was concerned. They were inclined to keep commitments at a minimum pending delivery of the President's relief budget message to Congress within the next few days.

New gold rumblings from the Capital also served as a restraining influence on speculative forces. Particular attention was paid to Washington advices indicating fresh discussions were under way on methods to halt heavy shipments to this country of gold from abroad. A Treasury quota buying system was suggested, although some banking quarters thought this was unlikely to be adopted.

Carrying on with last week's slow-paced advance, the bond market moved higher in light dealing.

The United States Government list, in which less than $1,000,000 of bonds were traded, closed 1-32 to 9-32 of a point higher.

Good buying lifted Cuban Public Works 5 1-2's up 2 1-4 points to 67 1-2. Other South American and several European obligations edged higher.

WHEAT FUTURES UP THREE CENTS

WINNIPEG, April 19 (CP).—Purchasing by Continental houses of all Canadian wheat offerings during the week-end and soaring overseas markets led to a brisk rally in wheat prices on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today.

Huge foreign buying pushed Canadian wheat exports to nearly 2,000,000 bushels before trading closed with vaules 3 5-8 to 2 1-4 cents higher. May wheat finished at $1.36 1-2, July $1.33 1-4 to $1.33 3-8, and October $1.21 1-4 to $1.21 3-8.

Prices shot more than three cents higher in all futures at the start with buying coming from all sources. However, minor setbacks were recorded by liberal selling of investment holdings purchased Friday and Saturday prior to the market's recovery from its 10-cent crash in two days late last week.

Liverpool advanced 6d at one time but full gains were not maintained and at the close gains were 5 1-8 to 3 3-4d.

Buenos Aires futures at noon were 6 3-8 cents above Saturday's close.

Coarse grains trading was spasmodic. Rye futures advanced four cents while July flax went the full five-cent limit allowed in one day.

MARINE, RAIL and AIR

RUSSIA HERE FROM ORIENT

Liner Docked Last Night After Being Fumigated At William Head

Delayed at William Head all day by Federal health officials for fumigation and examination of her passengers, it was 7 o'clock last evening when the Canadian Pacific liner Ss. Empress of Russia, Captain J. F. Patrick, commander, arrived alongside Rithet Piers, inbound from Orient ports with passengers, mails and cargo.

The Russia reached quarantine at 4:30 o'clock yesterday morning flying the yellow flag, sickness which at first was thought might be measles having proved to be smallpox. The infected person, a passenger in the third class, and his contacts were isolated on the ship, and as all members of the crew as well as the passengers had been vaccinated, the condition of the liner was such that the captain and ship's surgeon, Dr. C. W. Saunders, were complimented by Dr. Douglas, in charge at William Head, who was satisfied that after the more serious case and one member of the crew who had contracted the disease were sent ashore and the ship thoroughly fumigated, she was entitled to pratique.

Passengers aboard the Russia, many of whom are London-bound for the Coronation ceremonies, were glad that the vaccination proceedings allowed the ship to be released so promptly. The passage across the Pacific had been anything but pleasant, strong westerly winds prevailing most all the way. Captain Patrick stated that some of the seas encountered by the ship were about the biggest he had seen in his experience, their crests towering away above the bridge. It was not often that the Russia had to be slowed down, but doing seven knots she proved to be a good sea boat.

PROMINENT TRAVELERS

Prominent travelers on the Russia included: Dr. D. G. Beebe, prominent Zamboanga planter; Mr. S. L. Fletcher and three sons, from Manila for the United States; Mr. and Mrs. Neil McLeod and children, Manila, en route to England; Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Page, Manila, going to Europe; Mrs. C. Richards and two sons, from Manila, for the United States; E. L. Hosie, secretary Hongkong & Whampoa Dock Company; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ingram, secretary European Y.M.C.A., Hongkong; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Robinson, of Butterfield & Swire, Hongkong; S. Hampden Ross, chartered accountant, Hongkong; and Commander and Mrs. R. K. C. Pope, the former being an officer in the Royal Navy, going to England.

Also aboard the liner were: Sir Frederick Maze, Inspector-General of Chinese customs, bound for London; Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Wright, the former being commissioner of customs, Shanghai, for London; Mrs. S. F. Jeune, Shanghai; Mrs. R. S. Wilson, Shanghai, for Europe; Mrs. A. M. Harman and Miss J. Minister of Transport Believes Air Service Will Be Ready Then TORONTO, April 19 (CP).—Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Transport, today stated he believed mail service on the Trans-Canada Airways would start July 1.

"We are still working towards the July 1 opening," he said. "I feel, personally, that on that date mail service, at least, will start, with passenger service opening as soon thereafter as possible."

He said landing fields along the Montreal-Vancouver route were in good shape. The schedule was tentatively set at sixteen hours between Montreal and Vancouver.

Lockheed-Electra planes, carrying ten passengers, and the super-speed Lockheed planes, carrying fourteen passengers and possibly a hostess, would be used.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., April 19 (CP).—The 221-ton whaler Sylva arrived here today, burning deck woodwork to keep pressure in her boilers.

When the vessel sighted land Saturday, she had only two tons of coal in her bunkers after a stormy voyage from Ardrossan. After repairs, she will take up seal hunting.

GREAT LINERS FOR ATLANTIC

Three-Decked "Super Clipper Ships" Now Under Secret Construction

NEW YORK, April 19 (AP).—A fleet of six three-decked "super clipper ships," half again as large as the flying boats now flying the Pacific Ocean, are under "secret" construction in a Seattle factory for Pan-American Airways' trans-Atlantic service.

Partial details of the newest flying boats and of the 1,500-horsepower engines expected to allow them to cruise 5,000 miles at a speed of almost 200 miles an hour were announced last night following release of the engines from their manufacturer's "secret list."

Designed especially for the trans-Atlantic service, the six new clippers were ordered from the Boeing Aircraft Company following an international conference at Washington a year ago between Pan-American and Imperial Airways, Pan-American officials announced.

VANCOUVER SHIPPING

VANCOUVER, April 19 (C).—The Vancouver freighter Bornite, sold to Japanese interests for use on the intercoastal run between Japan and China, will sail from here Tuesday with Japanese officers and crew, according to Dingwall, Cotts & Company, agents here for the vessel.

The Bornite, flying the Japanese flag, will load full with scrap iron at Port Angeles and San Diego before starting her trans-Pacific voyage.

The Norwegian Ms. Soloy will arrive at Powell River late in May to load paper for the United States east coast. This business, for many years carried on by American ships, was taken over by chartered Norwegian vessels during the recent United States maritime strike and has been held by them since.

United Ocean Transport Company, whose freighter Koki Maru is now in port loading for Japan, will have two ships here in May—the chartered Ss. New Brighton, May 12, and the Japanese freighter Koshin Maru, May 25.

The halibut boat Princeton arrived in port over the week-end and sold 6,000 pounds chicken and medium at 12.9 cents on Vancouver Fish Exchange. She also sold 200 pounds red cod at 3 cents.

PRICES OF HALIBUT

PRINCE RUPERT, April 19 (CP).—Halibut sales: American, 45,000 pounds, 8 cents and 6 cents to 8.2 cents and 6 cents; Canadian, 88,000 pounds, 6.6 cents and 5 cents to 7.1 cents and 5 cents.

HARD TO DECIDE

CULBERTSON on CONTRACT

By Ely Culbertson

World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

A FINE ROMANCE

The duplicate games at Crockford's Club, New York, are of an unusually high calibre, and the winner each time has good and sufficient cause for self-congratulation. In a recent game I had been doing nicely and felt confident of victory until the last board. Imagine my indignation when, at that late stage, my own wife, as the current opponent on my right bilked me out of top score by being too darned alert on defence. This was the hand.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	2 ♥	Pass	Pass
Double	Pass	3 ♠	Pass
4 ♠	Pass	Pass	Pass

North's bidding on this hand deserves special mention. He had no free raise over the two heart bid, but, when I showed a strong hand with my double, he properly advertised he had distinctly better than a preference by jumping to three spades. Had he bid only two, I would not have dared to make another bid, since he might have a complete "bust."

West, with no attractive lead in his hand, opened the three of spades. Dummy's nine held. Mrs. Culbertson properly refusing to cover.

Assuming from the lead that I would be able to pick up the spade queen, it looked like a good contract, since I could lose no more than one heart, one diamond, and one club. However, since this was duplicate, I was not satisfied with merely ten tricks. I saw a splendid chance to make an extra trick. I led another round of spades and won with the king. When West followed, the queen became marked in East's hand. I now led the queen of hearts, hoping that West would pass it, which would permit me to throw him on lead with a second heart and force a club or diamond return from him. West was too smart for this, however. He stepped up with the heart ace, and returned the jack to make me do my own finessing. I led a diamond to the jack and, when it held, again visioned being able to throw West on lead for a forced club return. I laid down the diamond ace and led a third round.

But, alas for my hopes. My wife came through with a beautiful protection play, as I had been secretly afraid she would do. Instead of allowing her partner to be thrown on lead, she produced her remaining trump which, of course, was worthless for any other purpose. I glared at her, but that was all I could do. A club return through my ace salvaged West's king for him, and my extra trick vanished into the night.

TODAY'S QUESTIONS

Question—Partner made a take-out double of one diamond. Next hand passed. What should have been my response with ♠ 10 8 6; ♥ 8 5 3; ♦ 9 7 5 4 2; ♣ 8 6?

Answer—One heart, your lowest ranking three-card major suit.

Question—East opened the bidding with two diamonds. Both sides vulnerable. South passed. What should West bid with the following: ♠ K Q 9 6 ♥ J 8 5 ♦ 6 3 ♣ 10 6 3 2?

Answer—Two no trump. The spade suit is not quite good enough to show at this point, as a positive response, especially as West has not the plus part of the one-plus honor tricks required for a positive response.

DELEGATE TO CORONATION

Sir Frederick Maze, Head Of Chinese Customs, Is London-Bound

Sir Frederick Maze, Inspector-General of Chinese Maritime Customs, was a passenger aboard the Canadian Pacific liner Ss. Empress of Russia, arriving here last night. Sir Frederick, accompanied by his secretary, Miss Beatrice Moo, is on his way to London, where he will be one of a party officially delegated to represent the Republic of China at the Coronation of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth.

Sir Frederick told newspapermen that the Chinese delegation would comprise the Minister of Finance, the Minister of the Navy, the Chinese Ambassador to Great Britain and five Councillors of the Nanking Government, of whom he is one. The other members of the delegation had gone to London, by way of Suez, traveling on the Italian liner Victoria. He was unable to get away on that ship, but will meet the other delegates in London.

FOREIGNERS EMPLOYED

The headquarters of the Inspector-General of the Chinese Maritime Customs is at Nanking, but he resides in Shanghai, he said. The duties of his office are many, his administration including customs, foreign debts, lights and harbors. He stated that between eight and nine hundred foreigners are still employed in various departments of the service.

Sir Frederick succeeded Sir Francis Eglund in the high post he occupies. He is an Irishman, born at Belfast, a countryman of the founder of the Chinese Custom Service, Sir Robert Hart. He has occupied many positions in the Customs Service of China, which he first joined in 1891. He was created a mandarin of China by the Emperor in 1904, and has numerous decorations from both the Chinese and Japanese Governments.

RAILWAY HOTEL MAN IS CALLED

George S. Jessup, of Canadian National System, Dies at Ottawa

OTTAWA, April 19 (CP).—George S. Jessup, assistant-general manager of hotels for the Canadian National Railways, died in hospital here today after a short illness. He was fifty-six years old.

Jessup, a native of London, England, came here three years ago after holding important posts in the railway's hotel system at Toronto, Montreal and Winnipeg.

A graduate of London University, he came to Canada as a young man and first entered the railway service in 1911, with the Canadian Northern, at Winnipeg, and in 1917 was promoted to the position of chief accountant of the dining and sleeping-car department.

After amalgamation of railways into the Canadian National system the department was transferred to Toronto and Jessup was stationed there until 1923, when the headquarters were moved to Montreal.

In 1930 he became assistant to the general manager of the sleeping and dining-cars and hotels department.

He is survived by his widow and two daughters, here. Gordon Jessup, Vancouver, is a brother.

PHILADELPHIA TEAMS CAPTURE OPENING FIXTURES

Thousands to Be At Major League Ball Games Today

Close to 200,000 Expected to Watch Rest of Teams Swing Into Action—Yankees Stack Up Against Senators — DiMaggio, Foxx and Ruffing Will Be Missing From Line-Ups

NEW YORK, April 19 (AP).—Earmarked apparently for its biggest boom year since Babe Ruth was the No. 1 man on the firing line, major league baseball tomorrow will complete the flag-waving, band-playing gestures involved in "going over the top" for the 1937 campaign.

The roar of the crowds, in seven big league cities, will echo today's opening salute to the national game in Washington and Boston. Upwards of 200,000 fans, it is estimated, will witness the second half of the getaway festivities, launching the season-long drive to test New York's current pennant supremacy.

Few opportunities have been overlooked in the buildup of individual stars, headed by young Feller, whose personal prowess—demonstrated by yesterday's crowd of nearly 32,000 at the Polo Grounds to see him pitch against the New York Giants—may mean upwards of 200,000 additional cash customers at the gate this season.

Eleventh-hour developments, including player deals and casualty reports, apparently have not altered the positions of the world champion New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals as rival league pennant favorites.

STILL A HOLDOUT

The Yankees, even money choice against the American League field, go to the post against the Washington Senators considerably handicapped. The champions have not yet come to terms with their right-handed pitching act, Red Duffing, the most stubborn holdout the big town has known since Eddie Roush quit the Giants a half-dozen years ago, remaining out an entire season. Their stellar young centrefielder, Joe Dimaggio, minus his tonsils and still awaiting a dental operation, in the hope these measures will cure his sore shoulder, may be lost for a month. On top of that "iron man" Lou Gehrig, although scheduled to play his 1,809th consecutive game in his usual spot, has a painfully sore finger.

With Manager Joe Cronin back at shortstop, the Boston Red Sox have hopes of atoning for their dismal 1936 showing, but their ace slugger Jimmie Foxx, will be missing tomorrow from the starting line-up due to sinus trouble. The Senators, along with the Chicago White Sox, also aim to confirm their first-division ratings of last year.

For reasons not quite backed up by the facts, the Cardinals have remained the 8 to 5 betting choices in the National League and pick of a majority of baseball writers.

Addition of Lonnie Warneke, for years the right-hander ace of the Chicago Cubs, started the swing to the Cardinals.

This Spring St. Louis looked none too impressive in training and reports indicated Dizzy Dean's younger brother, Paul, had not recovered from an ailing arm. The "gas house gang" still carries the most color, and its reputation for fighting spirit is such that it cannot yet be counted out.

CUBS RATED

In Broadway Jack Doyle's betting book, the Cubs rate as 2 to 1 second choices, with the Giants no better than 5 to 2, but it's difficult to reconcile these odds with the obvious evidence of improvement in the New York club. Theoretically the loss of Manager Bill Terry, long the league's greatest first baseman, is a handicap, but Terry was only a part-time, crippled performer last year. The Giants offer a pitching staff, headed by the renowned Carl Hubbel, that shapes up as the best in the league.

Chicago's Cubs, despite some pitching worries, figure to be very much in the race. Pittsburgh looks stronger, in evey department, and Cincinnati's hustling Reds, impressing all who have seen them this Spring, may make it a five-club race most of the way.

None of this weighty speculation, however, will decide the main issue.

Charles Clark Is Named President

Charles Clark was elected president of the Sunday School Softball League at the annual meeting held at the Y.M.C.A. Tom Ellis was made vice-president, while Bob Dymond was returned as secretary and Mr. Baxter takes over the post of treasurer.

Entries for this season's play must be turned into the secretary by April 30. A meeting will be held the same evening at 8 o'clock in the Y.M.C.A. The league will open play on Saturday, May 8. Teams entered so far follow: Metropolitan Seniors, Metropolitan Juniors, First United Tigers, Emmanual Baptists, Andreans, St. Aidan's Spakes, Lake Hill Mission, Centennial, St. Alban's, Church of Our Lord and Rainbow Sea Cadets.

WINS FINAL AT UPLANDS LINKS

Joan Fletcher Defeats Mrs. Combe in "B" Class Club Championships

Joan Fletcher, comely young Uplands Club shotmaker, is rapidly following in the footsteps of her elder sister, Dorothy. Saturday afternoon she captured the "B" class club championship by defeating Mrs. H. B. Combe in the eighteen-hole final, two up. Miss Fletcher climaxed a week of steady golf by lifting the title, despite the fact her opponent was favored in the final.

The new titleholder displayed good control with her irons and her game around the greens was accurate, while Mrs. Combe was decidedly off with her spoons and therefore lost distance to her youthful opponent. Mrs. Combe dubbed an approach on the fifteenth to go three down, but she rallied to win the next two to stay in the running. However, a six gave Miss Fletcher the eighteenth and the match was all over.

Mrs. Darimont defeated the medalist, Mrs. B. M. Clifford, 2 and 1, in the first flight, and Mrs. V. Percival took the third flight by her 7 and 5 decision over Mrs. D. Fletcher.

The handsome challenge cup and other prizes were presented to the various winners by Mrs. E. M. Cuppage in the absence of the club captain, Mrs. E. Jackson.

Playing in a friendly threesome, T. Wilson scored a hole-in-one over the week-end at the Macaulay Point Golf Club. Wilson dropped his tee shot for a "dodo" at the short second hole.

Rider of Indian Broom Is Fined After Big Race

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19, (AP).—Stewards of the Tanforan race track fined Jockey Ralph Neves, rider of Indian Broom in the Marchbank Handicap Saturday, $100 and Darrel Cannon, trainer of the horse, $50, today.

The announcement said Neves was fined for "making a false statement" and Cannon "for conduct unbecoming a trainer" in connection with an incident of the race.

Fines were assessed after an investigation of a charge attributed to Neves that his mount had been deliberately cut off at the rail by Don Roberto, ridden by George Burns.

The stewards said both Neves and Burns agreed under questioning the incident was accidental.

Indian Broom, owned by Major Austin C. Taylor, of Vancouver, B.C., finished last.

FAIRFORD IS NOW FAVORED

W. Murray's First Choice For Derby—Big Race Carded Tomorrow

LONDON, April 19 (C).—W. Murray's colt Fairford was made sole favorite for the Derby at 9 to 1 when cards were called over at the Victoria Club tonight.

The race will be run at Epsom, June 2.

Arthur Sainsbury's William of Valence remained favorite for Wednesday's City and Suburban Handicap at 75 to 20.

Sixteen horses were named tonight as probable starters. Top weight of 123 pounds has been assigned to the Earl of Harewood's Queen's Shilling.

Braddock in Training

After Joe Louis saw this picture of Champion James J. Braddock swinging an axe at his training camp, he quickly decided to start getting into condition himself for their coming championship fight scheduled for June 22, at Chicago. Braddock is not losing any time getting into perfect shape for his first defence of the title he won from Max Baer over a year ago. Louis was to take a ten-day rest before going into training, but his manager, Julian Black, reports he will start as soon as a suitable camp is found.

Wembley Lions Defeat Winnipeg Hockey Team

English Squad Captures Second Game of World's Championship at Toronto With 4-2 Decision Over Memorial Cup Winners

TORONTO, April 19 (C).—Wembley Lions, champions of England, proved tonight that a good big team is better than a good little team by beating Winnipeg Monarchs, junior champions of Canada, 4-2, for their second straight victory in the round-robin hockey series being played here for the so-called world championship.

Lions, who defeated Hershey Bears 6-3 Saturday, packed too much weight up front for the Winnipeg crew, bolstered by four crack Toronto junior players. Although Monarchs got the jump with the first goal they faltered before a steady Wembley drive that netted two goals in the second period and another two in the third. Monarchs beat Roy Musgrove, Wembley goalie in the first and third periods.

MONARCHS LEAD

While 2,000 fans looked on Monarchs went one up in the first period when Pete Langelle snapped one home from a brief scramble in front of Musgrove, after Paul Rheault had brought the puck in on the goal. Though Wembley had a slight edge in the play the leech-like tactics of Monarch forwards in sticking to their checks kept them bottled up around the net.

LINE-UPS

Wembley—Musgrove, Bates, Smith, Graboski, Archer, Murphy. Subs: Dailley, Walton, Tony Lemay, Albert Lemay, Shewan.

Winnipeg—Ferley, Fox, Vandaele, Pike, Kowcinak, McCreedy. Subs: Dent, Rheault, Langelle, Martel, Heron, O'Flagherty, Inglis, Laurent.

Officials: Mike Rodden and Bert Corbeau.

SUMMARY

First Period—1, Winnipeg, Langelle (Rheault) 15:42.

Second Period—2, Wembley, Bates, 1:01; 3, Wembley, T. Lemay (A. Lemay) 2:59. Penalty: Smith 2.

Third Period—4, Wembley, Walton, 4:57; 5, Winnipeg, Rheault (Laurent) 8:47; 6, Wembley, Graboski, 13:16. Penalty: Murphy.

ATHLETICS SET BACK WASHINGTON, 4-3, IN TEN-INNING TUSSLE

Capacity Crowd of 32,000, Including President Roosevelt, Sees Senators Drop Close Decision To Connie Mack's Boys—Phillies Take Double-Header from Boston, 2-1 and 1-0

WASHINGTON, April 19 (AP).—Connie Mack, of Philadelphia, uncovered a freshman battery today which combined to defeat the Washington Senators in a ten-inning game which started the American League baseball season. The score was 4 to 3.

Even the presence of President Roosevelt, who had never seen Washington lose since he entered the White House, failed to offset the pitching wizardry of Rookie Almon Williams and a timely hit by Catcher Earl Brucker, a 30-year-old newcomer to the Athletics. A capacity crowd of approximately 32,000 fans saw Joe Cascarella of the Senators engage Williams, a 23-year-old righthander from Atlanta, in a tight pitchers' battle.

Connie Mack

Brucker broke up the game in the tenth when he stepped into a fast ball and smacked a double deep into centre field to score Bob Johnson with the winnmg run. Johnson had walked.

The veteran Mack's first attempt to whip the Senators with a rookie didn't pan out well. His starting pitcher, Edgar Smith, young southpaw from Williamsport, Pa., almost "walked" the A's out of the game. After Washington had scored a run on Stone's triple and Bluege's single in the second, Smith issued four bases on balls and forced across two runs in the third inning.

Then Connie called in rookie Williams. Despite a tendency towards wildness, Williams held the Washington sluggers to four hits during the seven and a third innings he worked.

The A's were never behind. They scored two runs in the second on Dean's single, Ciccell's double and an error by Myer. Bob Johnson smashed a long home run to centre field in the third.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

BOSTON, April 19 (AP).—Although generally consigned to last place in the National League, the Phillies cleaned up both games of a holiday opening bill today by defeating the Bees, 2-1, in the forenoon contest and coming back to administer a 1-0 shutout in the afternoon. A crowd of 10,000 turned out for the morning game and 25,000 saw the second contest.

An eleventh-inning home run by Morris Arnovich broke up the morning hurling duel between the veterans Guy Bush of the Bees and Sylvester Johnson, Phillie righthander. Johnson held the Bees to four hits. The visitors got eight. Johnson was replaced by Wayne Is Master in the ninth with two on and one out, then Arnovich hit the game-winning circuit smash.

Bucky Walters celebrated his twenty-seventh birthday in the afternoon by turning in a four-hit game against Danny MacFadyen to shut out the Bees, 1-0.

First game—	R.	H.	E.

Boston	1	4	1

Batteries: Johnson, La Master and Wilson; Bush and Lopez.

WATCH IN DEMAND

WELLAND, Ont. (P)—There must be something about Joe Ruch's watch. Twice in the past year it was stolen and recovered. Lately Joe called police and said it was his watch again. Burglars took it from his home.

HOLD "PURPLE GANGSTERS"

TORONTO (P)—Five 'teen-aged Toronto youths, self-styled "Purple Gangsters," are being held for sentence on a total of thirty-four charges to which they pleaded guilty. They burgled houses by breaking windows and slipping the catch.

Jane Dixon Says:

WHAT COMMENTS HAVE YOUR OTHER FRIENDS OF THIS COLUMN TO MAKE ON THIS FINE STORY OF A WOMAN'S SEARCH FOR HAPPINESS?

No need to paint the lily, and no need to add to the letter in today's column. It speaks for itself, and eloquently.

My Dear Miss Dixon: More than eight years ago I had to make a decision that was to affect my whole life. Whether I made a wise one or not, I will leave to others to decide. I know this, though. That I wish I had followed the dictates of my heart. The man I have loved for those eight years recently married the woman rumor says has been his wife in all but name for many years. My heart tells me he did so in sheer desperation, but should one listen to one's heart?

I loved the man I married even though I was quite young. He had been all a sweetheart should be, and who could believe marriage would change him so. The first pop-out-of-the-box after I was his wife, he told me not to mention to his friends that I had been a working girl. There were other disappointments—my husband was narrow-minded, stingy, domineering.

A year and a half, then renewed happiness with the arrival of my baby daughter. All the secret anguish of my heart was washed away in a flood of joy.

BECAME HIS SHIELD IN WAR

Before she was a year old, my husband asked me if I could get my old job back, as he was in desperate financial circumstances. When I asked him how this came about, he went into a tantrum as he always does when money matters are mentioned. In the course of the next two years I reached the top of my profession, and we were very congenial until one day he came to me and asked me to stop work—if I didn't, he'd have to go to war. Miss Dixon, I don't dare allow myself to think back over these things—why I bare my heart to you, I don't know.

Well, he didn't go to war; and after it was over I went back to work. I found happiness in my work, in the moulding of the young life entrusted to me, in keeping a comfortable home in order. Those were full years, for there is happiness in achievement—romance, if you will.

I was done with love. In only cluttered up one's life. I simply did not need it. But there was something I did need—more family. My husband contended we could not afford more babies. I managed by giving up my position and starting a business of my own, which prospered from the start.

For months my heart sang a sweet song, but that song never reached my lips—it ended in a dirge.

I emerged from this tragedy broken in health, heart and spirit. But there was my daughter to think of. As the clouds began to roll away, I found that love was not done with me, but I was determined not to have it in my life again. I fought with all my strength, this attraction for the man, who had helped me fight my way back to life through the valley of the shadows.

HER HUSBAND CHANGED

Now, strangely enough, my husband became a new man. He couldn't do enough for me, anything, everything, to make me happier. I know that never for a moment has he known of the battle that raged within me. The change in him could not compensate for the hunger in my heart. I decided to tell him everything and ask for my freedom.

Don't you think love deserves its happiness? The other man does not know from me how I feel about him. He thinks I love my husband, as do all who know us as a happy family.

Well, I didn't tell my husband. Old Man Depression came along, gave us several slaps, then a good hard wallop. Only by an eyelash did we pull through, holding to one another and our home. Could I have walked out on him when things were going so badly? Too late now. The man to whom I gave my heart eight years ago can not keep it now—he has no need for two.

My daughter is all a mother's heart could wish, climbing steadily in the work she has chosen. My husband will go to sleep over his paper this evening, and I'll finish a piece of embroidery begun last week. Tomorrow will be another day.

YOUTH AND GRATITUDE REMAIN

From this long account of the ride for which life has taken me, you might conclude I'm an old woman. I'm very little older than Mrs. Simpson, who rocked a king off his throne.

There's still a sparkle in my eye, a sheen on my hair and slim lines to my figure. There's a straight road ahead of me, no detours; but I'm thankful I need travel it only one day at a time. My days are packed full of work—housekeeping, reading, church and club, sewing—everything I can find to do. And I'm thankful for my friends. You are one, Miss Dixon, for I read your column daily.—Bound.

What comments have your other friends of the column to make on "Bound's" saga in search of happiness?

KING JOINS UNION

BELGRADE, (CP).—King Boris of Bulgaria has been elected an honorary member of the Jugoslav Railway Engine Drivers' Association after driving a train from this city to a frontier station.

RINGS OUT OF NOSES

TORONTO (CP).—Norman Dowds, nineteen, was picked up by detectives who found twelve rings taken from the noses of bulls at the Union stock-yards in his pockets. He was charged with theft.

SEALERS WHO SOLD SHARES OF SEALING CATCH LUCKY ONES

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., April 19 (CP).—Sealers from the Newfoundland vessel Imogene, who sold their share of the ship's catch to the Union Trading Company here, were each $127.58 richer today.

The men netted that amount as their share of the seals, for which they braved ice and heavy seas for six weeks to catch. The Imogene, one of six vessels in the sealing fleet, returned here early with only a partial catch.

PIGS CAUSE BARN FIRE

PICTON, Ont. (CP).—Perhaps they had heard of Mrs. O'Leary's cow, but anyway, pigs are blamed for fire that destroyed Roy Hicks' barn, near Milford village. They upset a lantern on a straw-strewn floor.

FRIENDLY HELP WORK GROWING

Fifty-One Applications Made To Local Benevolent Organization in March

The Victoria Friendly Help Welfare Association during March, despite the improvement in the weather, experienced an increase over the February figures in the number of applications both for direct and indirect service.

The report of the general secretary, Elizabeth Grubb, shows fifty-one applications, twenty-seven of which were referred by other organizations, six by professional people, five by private individuals, and thirteen were personal applications.

The twenty-seven applications were referred to the Friendly Help-Welfare by eighteen different organizations and departments, as follows: Ten in Victoria, two in Vancouver, one in Burnaby, three in Washington State, one in Arizona, and one in California. In addition to these, six cases were referred by professional men such as doctors, ministers and teachers.

PSYCHIATRIC CLINIC

In her report, Miss Grubb commented on the fact that the society had since its inception undertaken to act as official local correspondent for social agencies all over the world. Listed in the Inter-Agency Service Directory, published by the Family Welfare Association of America, it had last year received sixty-six inquiries from social agencies in twenty-four cities, in two Canadian provinces, and six American states. Several of the local organizations and departments depended to some extent on the services of the society. One of the most important functions was that of preparing and following up cases for the Provincial Psychiatric Clinic.

"In about 60 per cent of the cases to whom we gave intensive service in March, there would be real suffering if our association ceased to come to their aid; another 30 per cent would probably have to be cared for by other agencies," the report noted.

Victoria was the first "city" in Western Canada to establish trained social workers in the family field, so the association was regarded by national organizations as a necessary link in the total scheme of social work.

At the Theatres

VICTOR McLAGLEN ON LOCAL SCREEN

Academy Award Winner for 1935 In "Nancy Steele Is Missing." At Dominion Theatre

"Nancy Steele Is Missing," the Twentieth Century-Fox production opens today at the Dominion Theatre.

Victor McLaglen, winner of the Motion Picture Academy's acting award for 1935, turns in one of the finest performances of his career in this taut, dramatic film, in which he is starred with two of the screen's outstanding players, Walter Connolly and Peter Lorre, Europe's one-man chamber of horrors.

June Lang and Robert Kent are featured in the picture, adding a romantic note to the proceedings.

OAK BAY THEATRE Metro - Goldwyn-Mayer's "Rose Marie" is currently showing at the Oak Bay Theatre, starring Nelson Eddy and Jeanette MacDonald. Included in the many spectacular scenes of this famous light opera is the totem pole Indian dance filmed with all the realism of the native ritual.

PLAZA THEATRE Jeanette MacDonald, the golden-voiced star of "Rose Marie" and "Naughty Marietta," becomes a Barbary Coast dance hall singer in "San Francisco," the W. S. Van Dyke musical drama currently at the Plaza Theatre. Clark Gable and Spencer Tracy are co-starred.

CAPITOL THEATRE "Wings of the Morning," now at the Capitol Theatre, was produced entirely in the new, natural Technicolor. The Twentieth Century-Fox release stars Annabella, Henry Fonda and Leslie Banks, and presents the world-famous tenor, John McCormack.

COLUMBIA THEATRE June Clayworth, featured star in "Two-Fisted Gentleman" at the Columbia Theatre, holds one of the highest literary degrees awarded by a school of higher learning. She attended Emerson College in Boston and was awarded a degree of Bachelor of Literary Interpretation when she was graduated.

ROLLICKING COMEDY COMING TO DOMINION

In the vivacious, light-hearted person of Anna Lee, schoolboys have at last found the answer to their prayer. Blonde, blue-eyed peaches - and - cream complexion with a contagious air of gaiety Anna Lee is a schoolboy's dream come true. The fan mail she gets proves this to be a fact.

Miss Lee is featured in "You're in the Army Now," with Wallace Ford co-starred. This rollicking fun-picture will come to the screen of the Dominion Theatre, Friday, with John Mills heading the supporting cast.

ARION CLUB TO END SEASON WEDNESDAY

The closing concert of the forty-fifth season of the veteran Arion Club will be held at the Empress Hotel tomorrow night at 8.30 o'clock. Particular interest is attached to this concert by the active singing members on account of the presentation of Felicien David's "The Desert," with orchestral accompaniment.

In addition to this beautiful work, which has not been given for a number of years, and which occupies the latter part of the programme, the conductor, W. C. Fyfe, has prepared a diversified programme of six numbers, which are in direct contrast to the symphonic Ode of Felicien David.

Mrs. W. H. Wilson will also sing a group of soprano solos.

An active demand for tickets from other than regular associate subscribing members has developed, ensuring a capacity house.

PLAN PURCHASE OF GROUP-HEARING AID

The Victoria Club for the Hard-of-Hearing will hold a special meeting tomorrow evening, at 8 o'clock, in the clubrooms at 1011 Government Street, in order to discuss ways and means of obtaining group-hearing aid.

These group-hearing aids are of immense value, not only to the members of the club, who possess one, but to all the hard-of-hearing people of the community. By means of such an aid, a person who does not hear well can enjoy lectures by prominent speakers and follow discussions on popular everyday topics. Music can also be enjoyed. A microphone in front of the speaker conveys the sound of his voice to everyone who is wearing a head-set. A switch attached to each receiver enables the listeners to control the volume of sound to suit their individual requirements.

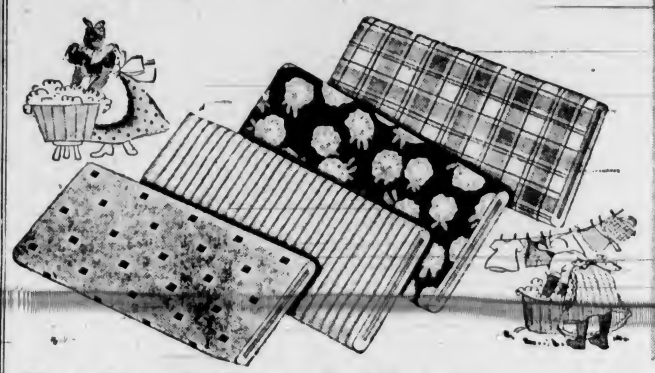

Everyone interested in this subject is cordially invited to be present tomorrow evening. The meeting will be for the special purpose of arriving at a definite plan of action so that such an aid may be purchased in the near future.
